

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Washington, D. C.

October 20, 1940

The Commission on October 15, 1940, adopted the following new rule governing international broadcast stations:

"Section 4.43(f)

- (1) Each licensee of an international broadcast station shall make verbatim mechanical records of all international programs transmitted.
- (2) The mechanical records, and such manuscripts, transcripts, and translations of international broadcast programs as are made shall be kept by the licensee for a period of two years after the date of broadcast and shall be furnished the Commission or be available for inspection by representatives of the Commission upon request.
- (3) If the broadcast is in a language other than English the licensee shall furnish to the Commission upon request such record and scripts together with complete translations in English."

John B. Reynolds,
Acting Secretary.
