OCTOBER 1, 1962

Reported by Mr. PASTORE, without amendment

AN ACT

To amend section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That section 305 of the Communications Act of 1934, as 4 amended, is further amended by addition of a new subsection
5 as follows:

6 “(d) The provisions of sections 301 and 303 of this 7 Act notwithstanding, the President may, provided he de-8 termines it to be consistent with and in the interest of 9 national security, authorize a foreign government, under such 10 terms and conditions as he may prescribe, to construct and 11 operate at the seat of government of the United States a

1 low-power radio station in the fixed service at or near the 2 site of the embassy or legation of such foreign government
3 for transmission of its messages to points outside the United 4 States, but only (1) where he determines that the author-
5 ization would be consistent with the national interest of the 6 United States and (2) where such foreign government has 7 provided reciprocal privileges to the United States to con-
8 struct and operate radio stations within territories subject
9 to its jurisdiction. Foreign government stations authorized 10 pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall conform
11 to such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe.
12 The authorization of such stations, and the renewal, modifi-13 cation, suspension, revocation, or other termination of such 14 authority shall be in accordance with such procedures as may 15 be established by the President and shall not be subject to 16 the other provisions of this Act or of the Administrative 17 Procedure Act.”

Passed the House of Representatives September 21, 1962.
