Federal Communications Commission

1. Listed herein are those Commission documents that amend or waive service rules, but that do not amend the Table of Frequency Allocations. The Office of Engineering and Technology began this history file in mid-October 2005. All service rule documents that the Commission adopts after October 1, 2005 will be entered into this history file. Other recently adopted service rule documents will be added to this history file as soon as staff resources permit.

2. The Table of Contents, below, contains only the short title for each proceeding/action and the FCC document number. Immediately following the Table of Contents, a complete citation for each Commission action is provided and, if available, a link to the document is provided.
