I have a question and would like an explanation. Why is not the FCC filing a charge against CBS for their recent airing of the Grammys, as the Airing of Cardi B.'s performance clearly stepped beyond the boundaries of obscenity if not indecency.

Does this not fall within the jurisdiction of the FCC?

Surely one doesn't need to be a prig, a hopelessly suburban rube, a modern-day Tipper Gore, to find Cardi B's performance at the Grammy's beyond the pale. It may have shocked the bourgeoisie but for no good reason except to make money. It was mindless, tasteless, obvious, vapid—an insult to real pornography, if such a thing were imaginable. As adults, we know what we saw was concocted by men or women in suits to make money. Corporate interests used two black women for their own benefit and, in the process, piped into living rooms across America a vision of female objectification for young girls and women to be molested by. I am, as the father of two young girls, absolutely grossed out. (b)

If we are to have the MeToo Movement remain authentic, then I do believe television programs such as the Grammy, would support us as women; black women; performing artists, to set some guidelines as to how much nudity is acceptable. Cardi B and the Stallion performers were very upsetting for us as a family with pre-teen daughters and grand children, to see how insulting their stage dance movements were with outfits that accentuated the moves. Do they have to do that much to be "appreciated"? We only ask that you please be mindful that the hour the Grammy airs, is family hour and we would like to enjoy the show without worrying about having our female degrades the moment with sexually explicit dress and movements. Yeah, you fucking with some wet-ass pussy
Bring a bucket and a mop for this wet-ass pussy
Give me everything you got for this wet-ass pussy
Beat it up, nigga, catch a charge
Extra large and extra hard
Put this pussy right in your face
Swipe your nose like a credit card
Hop on top, I wanna ride
I do a kegel while it's inside
Spit in my mouth, look in my eyes
This pussy is wet, come take a dive
Tie me up like I'm surprised
Let's role play, I'll wear a disguise
I want you to park that big Mack truck
Right in this little garage
Make it cream, make me scream
Out in public, make a scene
I don't cook, I don't clean
But let me tell you how I got this ring (ayy, ayy)
Gobble me, swallow me, drip down the side of me (yeah)
Quick, jump out 'fore you let it get inside of me (yeah)
I tell him where to put it, never tell him where I'm 'bout to be
I'll run down on him 'fore I have a nigga running me (pow, pow)
Talk your shit, bite your lip (yeah)
Ask for a car while you ride that dick (while you ride that dick)
You really ain't never gotta fuck him for a thang (yeah)
He already made his mind up 'fore he came (ayy, ah)
Now get your boots and your coat (ah, ah, ah)
For this wet-ass pussy
He bought a phone just for pictures
Of this wet-ass pussy (click, click, click)

Pay my tuition just to kiss me
On this wet-ass pussy (mwah, mwah, mwah)
Now make it rain if you wanna
See some wet-ass pussy (yeah, yeah)
Look, I need a hard hitter, I need a deep stroker
I need a Henny drinker, I need a weed smoker
Not a garden snake, I need a king cobra
With a hook in it, hope it lean over
He got some money, then that's where I'm headed
Pussy A1, just like his credit
He got a beard, well, I'm tryna wet it
I let him taste it, now he diabetic
I don't wanna spit, I wanna gulp
I wanna gag, I wanna choke
I want you to touch that lil' dangly thing
That swing in the back of my throat
My head game is fire, punani Dasani
It's going in dry and it's coming out soggy
I ride on that thang like the cops is behind me (yeah, ah)
I spit on his mic and now he tryna sign me, woo
Your honor, I'm a freak bitch, handcuffs, leashes
Switch my wig, make him feel like he cheating
Put him on his knees, give him something to believe in
Never lost a fight, but I'm looking for a beating (ah)
In the food chain, I'm the one that eat ya
If he ate my ass, he's a bottom feeder
Big D stand for big demeanor
I could make you bust before I ever meet ya
If it don't hang, then he can't bang
You can't hurt my feelings, but I like pain
If he fuck me and ask, "Whose is it?"
When I ride the dick, I'ma spell my name
Ah (whores in this house)
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, you fucking with some wet-ass pussy
Bring a bucket and a mop for this wet-ass pussy
Give me everything you got for this wet-ass pussy
Now from the top, make it drop
That's some wet-ass pussy
Now get a bucket and a mop
That's some wet-ass pussy
I'm talking WAP, WAP, WAP
That's some wet-ass pussy
Macaroni in a pot

Description

I Didn't watch the grammy's bec I know that it has been going down the tubes for years along with other award shows. But I did catch up from little news clips about how wronchy it was and from people I know saying how awful it was on facebook. We are out here! We don't like nasty stuff. We want good wholesome things to look at. It is disgusting what we are allowing to be on tv now. Please do something about it. What is wrong with America?!!!Our younger generation that likes nasty stuff has just lost their minds and have no taste and no idea what doing right is. All they want to do is promote sex and nakedness and anything that is sin. I hope you are realizing that people aren't watching anymore. The only people who like this crap are the ones that are there doing it. I don't know who is voting for this garbage either but hollywood is in a world of it's own. The real world is shocked!!!! Shocked!!!!

The disgusting performance of "WAP", which is in and of itself too offensive and disgusting for television, should draw extreme punishment from the FCC. Indeed, if that is to be allowed on network television, then there is no reason for the FCC to pretend to govern television ever again! I would be less offended by boobs and butts everywhere than by that filth!

Company Complaining About: Cbs

Description

The Grammy's Award show aired by CBS was disgusting and full of filth. Simulated lesbian sex scenes are not appropriate for national television. CBS should be fined heavily for allowing the Cardi B song, "WAP" to be performed on stage and for allowing the "performers" to do the disgusting sex scene acts they did in the so-called performance. This not acceptable and CBS should be penalized heavily for allowing it. Thank goodness my kids weren't watching this atrocity!

Description

The above performance featured on CBS was grossly offensive featuring sexually explicit choreography and lyrics that are not appropriate outside of a porn channel. Children were exposed to this show that is meant to feature as family entertainment honoring the arts. As a female I found the performance degrading to women as it held out women as sexual objects. Request that the FCC investigate the content of this offensive show and performance and address according to its legal authority with sanctions or other penalties and recourse action.

Their performance was a disgrace which was considered pornography in my opinion. CBS should be fined for allowing it to be aired. There is a possibility of the 2 artists not following the rules and went off track with something that was approved. I can only imagine a little girl watching the show and thinking this is okay. I am sure by now you all know what the "WAP" song translated so I don't have to tell you. But what if a 4 year decides they are going to imitate that performance. The Grammy Awards show and others such as Jennifer Lopez's Super Bowl show last year. The FCC needs to upgrade the regulations on non cable shows on what is respectable.

I am horrified by the performance of WAP that was aired on the Grammy's this year. The imaging was beyond vulgar & sexually explicit - it was pornographic. The lyrics to the song are the most offensive and vile that I have ever heard. No amount of word changing and bleeping can change that or soften the messaging. I can not believe that this was allowed to be played for a prime time audience. The Grammy's are billed as a family show, and children are watching. I am not a prude, but I do not wish to watch such vile trash, and certainly do not want my children exposed to this as if it is normal, "mainstream" content because it certainly is not.

As a professional woman in my 40's, with a daughter, I am embarrassed and appalled that this performance was allowed on prime time television. The song itself is EXTREMELY offensive and should not be played, but then to add women stripped on a stripper pole, while money is being thrown around and women are rubbing their genitals on each other on a giant make shift bed, is just unheard of. This should be in a rated R movie, not on prime time television. Women have worked for decades to be respected and treated equally and this is nothing more than offensive to ALL women and a giant step backward. So oppressive and I can't believe that my young daughter was subjected to that on television. I am embarrassed for this country. I'm not sure what the rules are or how to solve this, but she should be fined and or banned from being on public television. I do not know who approved this, but they should be as well. I never complain and have never made a complaint to you, but this is just over the top and there are no words to describe my disgust.

I had my children with me watching this broadcast and quickly had to usher them out of the room. This was literally watching a performance at a strip club. You all should be raked over the coals for allowing pornography to be played out over the open airwaves. CBS needs to be punished along with the performers for thinking this was ok to do.

No talent, garbage is what music is today. Miss the days of Grammys music where they could play an instrument and sing instead of roll around the floor in a sex act. A sex club has more class. It's not really about women being treated as independent, full-rounded human beings. It's about wet a-- p-word.

This vulgar rendition is not about promoting women!

At the very least there should have been a 'warning' so that parents could change the channel or remove children from this offensive crap.

The vulgar language and dry-humping of the two 'artists' promoting lesbian sex...

I give up. SHUT DOWN THE FCC AND ALL TV.

It was absolutely astonishing to see a musical Award let alone "The Grammy's" have such bad taste to allow the singers Cardi B and Megan Stalion put such disturbing, inappropriate and flat out offensive display in what it should have been an afternoon of artistry and music celebration. I am both as a parent and a consumer extremely disappointed that your agency allowed such display to go on air. Our family chose to watch the awards as a "family affair" since my both daughters love music and enjoy singers like Taylor Swift and Billie Eilish among others. This was their first Grammy ever. Most likely the last for awhile. We were all terrified and speechless. All of a sudden the award became everything that I fear the most for my daughters to watch (they are 9 and 12 yrs old) : many women barely wearing clothes, touching all over their bodies specially their asses and front part, shaking in sexual positions, not to talk about the lyrics!! I can't describe how shocking and demoralizing was to have our family watch that. I hope this agency comes to terms with the reality that this was absolutely inappropriate and make a decision to not allow such things happen again. If I ever wanted my daughters to learn how to use a poll that would be my solo decision not one done and inspired by the shows we watch as a family. I guess we will never forget the day we let our daughters watch the Grammy for the first time.

Description

Cardi B and Megan's performance was disgusting! Thankfully no young children in my household. Presenting a musical number with little clothing, suggestive lyrics and the dancing???, if it could be called that, was absolutely inappropriate for a television awards show. If they want to perform in that manner, they should do so in an all adult strip club! I was embarrassed and upset that this was allowed to be aired! I would hope that there is a regulatory board that should oversee this type of "entertainment" Would you allow and approve of your children watching this ?? It was appalling, and quite frankly, I turned it off after less than a minute. Apparently, the producers of the Grammy Awards have no morals! Please do whatever means it takes to prevent entertainment such as this to be aired on National television and probably TV worldwide.

Description

Let me try to understand this as a Mom of an impressionable 15 year daughter that I used to enjoy watching music awards shows with and could proudly say I was a role model.

Peppa Pig and Dr. Seuss children's books and shows are being pulled due to claims of racism, yet Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion can simulate sex in next to nothing attire while "singing" WAP (which for anyone at the Grammy Academy who bothered to do their research means Wet Ass Pussy) during a "family friendly" primetime music awards show that is supposed to cover all genres. I am not a bible thumping, closed minded, conservative unrealistic parent and consider myself pretty open minded about the creative process, but I am appalled by and speechless as to how this performance was allowed to happen. In a time where the Me Too movement, sex trafficking and other crimes against young women are at the forefront of protecting our children's innocence, these supposed "artists" put on an x-rated show that glorifies the opposite.

Shame on the Grammys for taking away the little innocence left for our youth by caving into the demands of and promoting the disgusting behavior of two performers that should go back to the strip clubs they started in instead of doing the right thing by denying them the platform they were given. It is unacceptable but despite my personal protest, will no doubt be topped next year by something more repulsive. I won't find out as I will no longer subject my family to the trash being promoted as art.

The performance by Cardi B on primetime public television is TRASH. This type of content should be PAID for and instead it is being showed to Children across our country because apparently no one in charge has any morals!!! Soo disgusted!! I would like to know who is actually going to take some blame for this and step up and put a stop to this disgusting content being shoved down our children's throats. Most of us Americans still want our children to grow up as CHILDREN not be exposed to soft core porn!!! The lyrics alone in these songs are X rated. Literally describing sex in the most degrading way. Everyone wants to talk about women empowerment this is the farthest thing from empowerment, it at the very least is DEGRADING to women. Yeah let's teach all our young girls that they are a sexual object for everyone to enjoy, that's really supporting woman!!!

This year I only saw less than half towards the end and what I saw validated my desire to never watch this again. The level of depravity in the WAP performance was particularly disturbing. I hold programs like these and the FCC responsible for the harm done to our youth's mental health. These types of performances are unnecessary. It's obvious it's NOT about music at all.

To be honest, the performance of the above mentioned people, not artists, was terrible! It was so inappropriate for network television. It should have been late night Cinemax soft porn. Why would u think that is ok? You take off Chris Harrison from the bachelor but yet their show was art and ok? It doesn't make sense. Even though the Grammys this year as not watched by the usual crowd, I'm sure that was because of CoVID19.. the show was great other than the joint performance of these two women. I loved the intimate setting of the performances of Bruno Mars and Silk Sonic and every other performance. How can you ban Janet Jackson, but not Cardi B and Meg Stallion? The hypocrisy. It was over the top and so inappropriate for network tv.

I feel the performance from Cardi B was extremely inappropriate, very offensive and degrading for women. When you allow the Grammys to allow and support this trash on public TV that clearly is NOT G rated then clearly there is a major problem with this society and generation. This performance not only was inappropriate but disturbing knowing that the Grammys along with Cardi B are ok with allowing our young women and little girls to think being promiscuous and to have sex to get what you want from men! Shame on you Grammys for promoting sex and strip clubs on TV knowing very well you have a young audience watching. I am baffled and just taken by the fact that this trash of an artist is ok to be viewed but yet here we have pepe le pew and Dr. Suess being called inappropriate!!! When you have a society that is ok with allowing soft porn on TV and cartoon characters called inappropriate then obviously our priorities are way off!!! I am floored that the FCC would fine Janet Jackson for her incident at the super bowl half time show but aren't doing the same to Cardi B!!! Clearly this was wrong to be allowed to be performed on TV most everyone knows what WAP means and can add two and two together when you have 2 women spreading their legs wide open on a bed,, slapping and grinding on their crotch

I will admit I did NOT watch this program, and only saw the news clips and clips on the internet and I CANNOT even imagine a family or any decent human being actually watching this pornographic material in it's entirety!!! Of course, complaints from citizens will go absolutely nowhere because the entities involved in this smut are just too big and powerful and morally corrupt!!!!!! Shame on you people!!!!!! Not only the pornographic nature of the show, but politics should NOT be part of awards shows that should be about talent, and all the awards shows are beginning to lack ANY TALENT WHATSOEVER!!!!!! THESE DISGUSTING AND POLITICAL SHOWS HAS GOT TO STOP AND IT IS IN YOUR POWER TO DO THAT! DO THE ERIGHT THING AND CLEAN UP OUR ENTERTAINMENT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I don't go to strip clubs because I don't support the sexual exploitation of women, and all this performance did was glorify it. One look into their backgrounds confirms they both come from very disturbing pasts and clearly never learned healthy boundaries. Would you have allowed a man who confessed to drugging women, then robbing them do perform? I don't think so. SO why would you let this vulgarity play on TV? That is definitely the last time I watch. I don't remember what network it was on, and I'm Canadian, but everyone I know has been talking about the lack of respect the public has for the Grammy's now, and the lack of Respect the Grammy's clearly has for the public

The 2021 grammy show featured Cardi B. It was a highly offensive pornographic exhibition. The definition of pornography is: "printed or visual material containing the explicit description or display of sexual organs or activity." The content clearly met this basic definition with lewd acts, to include homosexually oriented acts. Such content should never be broadcast over public airwaves, and CBS should be significantly fined by the FCC.

If main stream television cannot keep nudity, pornographic, indecent, vulgar and sexual productions, like Cardi B's WAP, off the air, then they are setting themselves up for potential lawsuits. The fact that that performance made it through practice rounds, and was allowed to be aired, and that broadcasting chose to not go to commercial break because of the obscenity, speaks to a much larger problem with the ethics and morality, which apparently the FCC doesn't take seriously.

I think Primetime TV where children are watching should be more regulated. I mean ever since the Justen Timberlake Janet Jackson incident programming has gone downhill, where each time a primetime event happens they try to make the handlines with something racy. On the last Grammy, our families were taken on a trip to view what some would find in a strip club. When is the FCC going to make an example of these Directors and Producers who decide a spectacle like the one performed by Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion suitable for our living rooms? Where was the warning to parents to the content of the performances? I do believe these programs are pushing the envelope as far as they can to see just how much the FCC will allow them to get away with. The FCC should protect our families and follow the same example they followed in the past to regulate these programs or not allow Live shows until the content is verified family suitable.

I was horrified by the obscenity CBS allowed during the Grammys this past Sunday, 3/14/2021. In particular, the performance by Cardi B. and Megan Thee Stallion. This was nothing short of an XXX display and mainstream Primetime television is not the right forum. Please protect our children. This is of my utmost concern. Boundaries need to be put in place ASAP, and in a "me too" age, they need to stop sending mixed messages to our youth.

The site was an award show. Something we should be able to watch as a family. The fact that things like this are becoming more common on tv is sickening. We can not censor our children 100% of the time. I would have thought that watching a program like this would be aware of what is acceptable and what is not acceptable behavior. We can stop watching these shows but what keeps my child from seeing it on social media? I can block things on my childs phone and tablet but what about their friends devices. We all know we can tell our children not to do something but that just makes them want to do it. I am only 40 years old but still remember when adult things like that were not on the regular cable television. Isn't this your job, to make sure things are still wholesome.

Last week Sunday's Grammy performance by Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion's WAP performance was obscene, pornographic, and completely inappropriate for prime time television. I'm OK if some viewers considered this a wonderful performance, but I found it to be disgusting, tasteless, and clearly no class. Let's not even talk about the numerous peaks of Megan's crotch while she accepted the best new artist award. Watch the moments. Totally unacceptable on prime time TV or anywhere for that matter. I will surely tune out and not watch the Grammys in the future.

My two young daughters asked if they could please stay up late to watch the Grammy's on 3/14/21. I soon learned what an incredible mistake this was when Cardi B. and Megan Stallion came out. Fortunately, I was quick to turn it off when I saw what was going on. How could CBS allow this? Don't they pre-screen performances? They MUST have known this was coming and STILL ALLOWED IT?!?!? How could YOU, the FCC allow this? It completely disgusts me that our children are subjected to this outrageous behavior that prime time television has now normalized. Ask yourself, do you want your daughter looking up to this type of behavior? Are you all truly blind enough to believe this is what empowers a girl or woman? Please do what is right and penalize EVERYONE that was involved with allowing this to happen. And most important, please do whatever is necessary to make sure something so disgusting never happens again.

Thank You,

The performance by Cardi B & Megan Thee Stallion at the Grammy's was simply inappropriate. As a mother, I believe we are to yes empower our children to be the best version of themselves, all within reason. I can completely understand that it is the style of music and culture, but does it make it ok to glorify sex? This goes far beyond entertainment. As a major television network, it should be their job to encourage the future and encourage positive behavior. Children were present, and I understand that they will not live in the bubbles we so desperately want to keep them in, but to allow them to believe that this is the type of behavior they should engage in to be liked, desired, or respected is simply wrong. In the future, I would hope that The Grammy's would think a little more about the impact the performances would have on our children's psychological wellbeing.

Description

Grammy Performance by Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion. She stated that it was the WAP song . The consumer also stated that it was vulgar. It was taped by her son and his wife for her grandchildren .

We began to discuss her concerns and the information for her complaint filing.

During our conversation, she stated that her friends... and her son had explained what occurred. She was told, by her son, that they had to halt the replay of the recording, of the show, because of what was being displayed when they played back the recording. She was very upset that this was allowed on TV. However, she admitted that she did NOT view the programming. However, she stated that she did want to weigh in about this performance being allowed on TV. Her brother had sent her the link to the lyrics and she read them . She stated that she is calling out of concern for the children.

We discussed the performance and were discussing any actions or what happened and she stated that she was calling based on the lyrics that she read, when she received the forward from her brother. She stated that she is calling based on this fact alone and that they did this before 10:00 and that the programming should never have been aired no matter what time.

The programming was on CBS. It would have been on KLFY on her TV Her provider is Lus Fiber

She stated that she hopes her submission is counted along with everyone else stating that this programming is not acceptable.

Her cable provider is LUS Fiber . However, she did not view it on tv - she was made aware of the performance and wanted to file this complaint.

So I'm to understand in this world currently, children's books are deemed inappropriate, yet we have no overwhelming issues with 2 women (ex strippers, one of which has admitted to drugging and committing rape) grinding their private parts on stage while singing a song about their "wet ass pussy."

If the Grammys wants to try and use this filth that's their business (which is seeing absurd numbers in viewership dropping off every year). But I would've liked to believe the fcc would step in at some point and put their foot down.

The Grammy's decision to air Cardi B's performance is appalling. I'm also shocked that the network allowed that filth on the air! Families are known to watch awards shows together. I remember watching them as I was growing up. It's clear that it's no longer a reasonable option for families. I suggest choosing REAL artists for next year. Not spectacles who want attention. And the FCC needs to tighten standards related to smut. Specifically, I'm suggesting you don't allow smut anymore! I feel sad that everyday Americans have to tell you people what's acceptable. What happened to your own moral compass?

WAP lyrics ALONE are incredibly offensive. And the "artists" show?

This was a stain on all the previous actual music that won awards

Watch the Grammys? Care about the Grammys? Never again.

This is not a TV issue as described below. Had to fill out. Besides being Indecent

City/State/Zip: Downingtown, Pennsylvania 19335

Description

I am deeply concerned about the extremely offensive, despicable and psychologically damaging acts "supposed to be called entertainment as a dance" during the Grammy awards the other night. This was repulsive, unGodly, against family values, nauseating, detestable and forever psychologically damaging to the young children/adolescents/teens/adults especially women. This was an attack against women (unfortunately done by women and allowed by the broadcasters of the Grammys). These evil acts should not have been allowed and quite frankly, they are and were an abusive attack to all women of this nation and to all of our precious children. This is NOT okay, this should NOT be allowed, and the broadcasters in charge as well as the performers of this should be held accountable to their actions. Please tell me what I can do to permanently prevent this from ever happening again, and I will follow your instructions. Please put me to work to end this; I will be happy to help. You need to have all programming go through strict screening and filtering procedures. It can be done. Please create a position for this if it does not exist, although, you need a Director as it does not look like it currently is filled and notes a vacancy.

Please call me; I want to know the end result of this.

I viewed the half time show that was earmarked as indecent and now I have viewed this. It is just shocking. I am so glad my 12 year old son has not seen it. So so soooooo much sexual innuendo, crotch protrusion and butt shaking. Please, please, please don't normalize this. This is definitely made for 18+ crowds and quite possibly borderline pornographic.
