I would like to express my concern with the graphic and highly inappropriate performance of "WAP" at the 2021 Grammys. The lyrics, physical performance and costumes were tasteless exposing the performers buttocks while they bent over and purposely highlighted them for the camera.

I was very offended and shocked to see such this type of "entertainment" on a mainstream family channel.

This was neither artistic choreography a demonstration of vocal musicality. It was pure vulgarity. How censors could be horrified by the split second view of Janet Jackson's breast and not critical of the performance of the WAP song is unconscionable.

. Without a Trace's teen orgy scene prompts $3.6 million fine for CBS—In December 2004, CBS aired an episode of "Without a Trace" that had a graphic depiction of "teenage boys and girls participating in a sexual orgy." In an effort to clean the airwaves of indecent programming, the FCC fined CBS and their affiliates $3.6 million.

Super Bowl wardrobe malfunction earns CBS a $550,000 fine—It has been 6 years, but everyone still remembers the controversy created when Janet Jackson's breast popped out during a Super Bowl halftime show performance, costing CBS more than half a million in fines. The performers tried to pass it off as a "wardrobe malfunction", but no one was naïve enough to buy it. The fine was initially dismissed in 2008, but to this day, the FCC fine is still being debated.

Bubba the Love Sponge's shows draw $755,000 fine against Clear Channel—Radio shock jock Bubba the Love Sponge Clem triggered $755,500 in fines for indecent broadcasts. The FCC fined Clear Channel Communications for airing the indecent broadcasts of 4 Florida stations. The seven segments in question featured characters talking about drugs and sex, and they aired a total of 26 times on the stations.

FCC fines lead Howard Stern to satellite radio—In 1995, Infinity Broadcasting paid $1.7 million for various violations by Stern. Nearly 10 years later, the broadcast company was paying hundreds of thousands more for other indecency fines from Howard Stern's broadcasts. All of these fines led to Stern's departure from Clear Channel, causing him to join uncensored satellite radio.

Description

I felt violated with Meghan Stallion & Cardi B's performance. I am pro sex-positivity and body positivity but this performance crossed the line into pornography. Many kids still awake at that time, and even non-consenting adults were unexpectedly staring at pure objectification of women at its finest. Not to mention Trevor Noah's drooling, sweating, screaming wrap up like he was at a strip club. I am a massage therapist with deep respect for the human body who found myself crying myself to sleep wondering how this could be allowed on television. And how far this will go next year and the years after that. Art and objectification are opposite sides of the coin. Objectification perpetuates violence against women, maintaining the ripple effect that causes domestic violence, human trafficking, encouraging the consumption of women and then the disposal of them. I've watched the Grammys every year since I was 5 years old. It gave me something to strive for as a musician. As a female, I will never again view this program due to the allowance of this performance. since 1980

Your brief bio implies (at least to me)family values. So that said I hope you in some way will attempt to end the vulgar, deplorable trash that was presented on national TV called the Grammy's. If you're not able then just rename it to something more in line and appropriate to what it actually was...LivePorn.

Thank you

CBS aired a sexually explicit song (wet ass pussy) with women dancing around in thongs spreading their legs to the cameras like strippers with huge tongue images in the background. This strongly sexualized imagery and adult lyrics were broadcast over the air on a TVPG rated show with no warning to parents of strong sexual content. CBS should be fined for airing it.

Hi, The Grammys we're on this passed Sunday. It was super sad to see how low the bar has been set by American society. Cartoons, aunt jemima and more are being censored but what went on at the Grammys is ok? The wap performance was tragic. I don't care if it's not meant for children. It's on basic cable and most kids have cell phones. Stuff like this is over sexualizing our youth. We glamorize being a stripper on a poll when kids don't realize how disgusting and degrading this is. The outfits, the gestures the grinding, sexual poses wasn't a performance, it was spice tv!

Very disappointed in CBS, the GRAMMY producers and the FCC for allowing the content of this year's award show performances...specifically Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion. In reviewing your guidelines on your website, I do not understand how these performances don't meet your requirements to be labeled "obscene, indecent or profane" or how they could be allowed during the hours you have listed as times "children may be in the audience". This night of "women empowerment" was far from it. I am raising a strong, wise, empowered teen daughter and would never use either of these artists, their words or actions as examples of leadership in my rearing. How this is allowed and is thought to be mainstream entertainment is bewildering! Please review these performances, place fines where they should be charged and correct your future decision making to align with your commissions' rules.

This year's Grammy performance featured a set by performer Cardi B. We were confused as to why/how public television could broadcast a strip show, sex acts and fornication on public television? It was near NC-17 rating. I am requesting an investigation and fines imposed on the Grammys and any station that picked this up to be shown in a public forum. Here is the full broadcast so that you can see how this has no place on public television.

I'm sure you know which one I am referring to, but if not, it's the one done by Cardi B for her song WAP, which, if you didn't know, stands for "wet ass pussy". I am appalled and shocked that cardi b was allowed to act the way she did in an R rated sexual way on prime time tv for all to see— all ages. The Cardi B WAP performance during the 2021 Grammys was absolutely unacceptable for live television. It was offensive and inappropriate. The lyrics, language, costumes and dancing were completely obscene. This kind of performance should not be permitted or promoted on live television. Indecent to the max. Whoever coordinated that should be ashamed. This is wildly inappropriate. Nothing about the performance was PG in nature, and Cardi B is out of line for defending her vulgar actions.

Description

The performance of the song WAP was geared to mature audiences with its highly sexual content. The performers simulated sexual acts, sang about, well their wet a puies, and wore thongs. How can anyone at CBS think this is acceptable for a program awarding musical artists for their influence in the mainstream? Children watch these shows as music is a part of their lives and culture. It's an attack on childhood to force this type of pornographic content on them. As they are simply trying to watch an awards show.

I'm appalled the way women portray themselves. Everyone is so worried about racism (I'm not racist) but I am when it comes to airing such filth. If this is what needs to be aired on tv, watching Cardi B and her trashy show, why is it okay? Is it because she is Black? It is no wonder society is so screwed up. This is a disgrace to women. Back in the late 70's a radio station aired the word SHIT and the next day the radio station was taken off the air. It is time tv cleans up their act and requires these so called performers, actors and whatever else to clean up their acts, music and have respect for us who watch tv to enjoy watching it and not have to flip through channels because we have our children sitting watching without warning.

The Grammy Performance of Cardi B and Meg the Stallion were completely inappropriate for television. It is one thing if that is what they chose to do but it should not be shoved down millions of people throats. It is degrading and vulgar and not meant for primetime tv. I should be able to have my family watch a program on TV that is suppose to be family oriented and not have to worry about explaining why actual people can't and don't act like that in public. That is not women power, it is degrading and disgusting.

Dear FCC,

Contacting your office to register a complaint for the recent broadcast on CBS of the Grammy Awards. The content during musical performance of 'Cardi B' was Obscene content and does not have protection by the First Amendment, in my opinion. The scenes in the performance were clearly designed to appeal to an average person's prurient interest; and depicted or described sexual conduct in a "patently offensive" way; and, taken as a whole, lack serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value.

The performance was a clear indication of Indecent content that portrayed sexual (two female objects in what looked to be some sexual act was patently offensive.

That performance from what I observed would be considered a public nuisance. For example, if the scene simulating some type of sexual act between two women were performed in public square of any town USA that would be grounds for a charge or public indecency or nuisance act at minimum.

Hello,

My name is (b) (6) St. Louis, MO. I wanted to make a complaint about allowing such vulgar and disgusting dancing and songs to be played at the Grammy. The person in charge of overseeing the songs (WAP) and dancers (CardiB) dropped the ball and let filth play over the air waves. FCC is the top of the food chain if you will and should put a hammer on all the other companies who try to filter for the average citizen. I do not want to see or hear that type of music again.

Kindly,

Specifically, in this case, 2021 Grammy Awards and the Cardi B (WAP) performance. This, in one word, is PORNOGRAPHY. Please help us by weeding out performances that are indecent and offensive in nature. These type of performances happen all too often on TV and we should have some sort of line that can be drawn as to what we are subjected to in our homes. Please Help !

Having looked up the word WAP to understand the meaning in a news article I was directed to a song that was aired on the CBS 2021 Gammy awards show, I was shocked!! Could you please explain why this is not classed as a pornographic song and why CBS are allowed to get away with airing such filth at a time when there are possibly young children viewing. If this is not against the law then the F.C.C. needs to be abolished as it is completely ineffectual and without meaning.

My husband & I watched the Grammy Awards (on CBS); which we have always thought of as a program suitable for family viewing. We definitely do not feel like that anymore. We missed the beginning of the program but I understand that it was rated PG. We do not agree with this rating since the song & dance act by Cardi B/ Megan Thee Stallion to the song WAP was extremely vulgar. The words were frequently bleeped out. The remaining lyrics were also obscene, vulgar & sexually explicit. The dance moves were lascivious- mimicking the sex act. The scenery contained a bed & a stripper's pole. The costumes allowed for every female's entire buttocks to be exposed. This act was not suitable for children or teen viewing even if a parent was in attendance. It was equivalent to taking a child into a strip joint which would be exposing a child to porn. We also understand that we missed the guy that was wearing a penis on a necklace. We cannot understand how this was rated PG. If you think I am exaggerating jut google the words to WAP. That is the song for the performance in question. We were very disappointed that CBS did not provide a program suitable for family viewing. We won't be watching the Grammy's ever again because we don't watch porn. That is what this was. We are hoping that the FCC could in the future have better control of this kind of programming content. Their should have been a warning prior to the viewing of that act during the program. Sadly, it seems that we can no longer expect to have decent family shows anymore. Thanks to whomever will address this issue.

As a mother of 3 children and a citizen of the United States of 50 years, I am sickened and appalled that the performance was allowed on regular prime time television. It speaks volumes about how low those governing television are willing to drop their values and morales in order to get attention and ratings. American is sick and this agency should not add to its diseased culture.

If my kids had seen it, I would file a lawsuit. Fortunately I stopped allowing television in my home because it is no longer safe since those who are supposed to be protecting our kids from harm have no values or morals any longer. You allow sex scenes and vulgarity to play freely so my kids cannot leave and grow from television the way many of us did as kids. It is not safe and this agency is largely responsible for that.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter will alert you to my concern regarding a recent Grammy Awards broadcast. I believe the show was out of line in allowing the performance of the song WAP. For your reference, the lyrics to the song are shown below.

The words are explicitly sexual, crude, and disturbing. On the Grammy program, performers were allowed to act out the song lyrics. If this does not fit the definition of "obscene," I don't know what does.

Stiff penalties should be levied against the show's producers and the station which condoned and broadcast the show.

Please address this matter. Our civility depends on it!

Sincerely,

Spit in my mouth, look in my eyes
This pussy is wet, come take a dive

Gobble me, swallow me, drip down the side of me (yeah)
Quick, jump out 'fore you let it get inside of me (yeah)

Now make it rain if you wanna
See some wet-ass pussy (yeah, yeah)
Look, I need a hard hitter, I need a deep stroker
I need a Henny drinker, I need a weed smoker
Not a garden snake, I need a king cobra
With a hook in it, hope it lean over
He got some money, then that's where I'm headed
Pussy A1, just like his credit
He got a beard, well, I'm tryna wet it
I let him taste it, now he diabetic
I don't wanna spit, I wanna gulp
I wanna gag, I wanna choke
I want you to touch that lil' dangly thing
That swing in the back of my throat
My head game is fire, punani Dasani

I ride on that thang like the cops is behind me (yeah, ah)
I spit on his mic and now he tryna sign me, woo

Your honor, I'm a freak bitch, handcuffs, leashes
Switch my wig, make him feel like he cheating
Put him on his knees, give him something to believe in
Never lost a fight, but I'm looking for a beating (ah)

If he ate my ass, he's a bottom feeder
Big D stand for big demeanor
I could make you bust before I ever meet ya

Description

Showing a performance of Cardi B and others doing something nothing less than a strip show. The performance crossed the line of decency and shouldn't have been on network television. How is it Adam Lamberts performance in 2009 they were fined AMAs and other performances canceled. This should never have been allowed.

Description

Listen, whatever people listen to and whatever lurid pornographic performances they subject their children to is (unfortunately) their business. But this act was horrendous. This sort of thing belongs on a pornographic channel, not on what is billed as family entertainment. Displaying sex acts on television in front of children and families? Trying to pass it off as "dancing?" Sure, was it a ratings stunt? Did it make people talk about it? Sure, but it's also degrading the fabric of society, families, feeding off of racist stereotypes, typecasting Black women, and taking advantage of women who obviously don't have enough insight to see that their actions affect more than the largess of their bank accounts. I do not consent to this. And this whole "well turn the channel" call; when does it stop? What's next? The bar has been set rather low now. What's next? Children doing these "dances?"

FINE both performers and all those involved SO SEVERELY that no one will do something so low AGAIN!

On 3/21//21 my minor daughter and I tuned into the Grammy Awards on CBS; Channel 11 in Dallas TX. She wanted to see if her favorite performers would win an award. I was mortified when Cardi B and MeganThe Stallion performed Half-naked with their buttocks in full view. They performed the so-called "WAP" song while mimicking overt sexual acts on-stage. I switched stations and had to tell my daughter she could no longer view that program. I do not understand how such a performance can be shown on a prime time program for family viewing. I hope the FCC will actually censor the Grammy Awards for such an indecent display. I am also contacting CBS to voice my extreme displeasure with their programming.

The "performances" at the grammys were pure trash. smut. Why was this allowed on national TV?
