Description

I was shocked and appalled by the performance during the 2021 Grammy Awards by Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion - it was nothing short of pornography. How can the FCC allow CBS and these trashy performers to display such lewdness on our TV, especially during prime time family viewing?

Company Complaining About: Comcast

Description

The grammy awards show on prime time tv with the performance of Cardi B was so un appropriate for the youth of america. I am so disappointed in what is acceptable in mainstream television. I watched this show with my grandson and had to turn it off. I'm ashamed this is deemed appropriate!

Description

I know this is late, however, I was not aware that I could voice my opinion. I was sickened by the indecency and exposure that Megan Thee Stallion displayed during her performance. I could not understand the words to this "song", but when I looked them up, I was more disgusted. What makes me angry is that the children were up for this event. Your responsibility is to protect them and hold broadcasters accountable. There is a curfew of sorts you are supposed to hold broadcasters up to. If you are not doing your job, then why is there an FCC any longer? The Network and Grammy's had to have been aware of which song she would be doing. I turned the channel, and I do not have young children here any longer. However, parents are struggling to figure out how to protect their kids, but without your involvement in internet controls, they are losing an uphill fight. I am not sure if you are aware of the number of children becoming exposed to porn via the internet but look at the NCBI for guidance. Here is a link. It is sickening. de Alercon, R., de la Iglesia, J., Cassado, N.M., & Montejo, A., (2019, January 15). Online porn addiction: What we know and what we don't. A systemic review. Children often do not have parents available to oversee, and our country should value them enough to protect them. It is time to get involved.

Ticket: # 4680654 - WAP song sung at the Grammy's

Date: 3/31/2021 7:13:25 PM

City/State/Zip: Hendersonville, Tennessee 37075

Company Complaining About: Comcast

Description

Cardi B singing Wet Ass Pussy at the Grammys. I read the lyrics and they were disgusting. I'm sure someone could not read these lyrics on the radio so why can they be sung on TV along with the dancing that was obscene. I thought there were rules about what is show on TV???

Ticket: # 4681114 - The Grammy's

Date: 3/31/2021 11:49:28 PM

City/State/Zip: San Miguel, California 93451

Description

The Grammy's should be taken off the air. Year by year YOU have allowed it to get more and more obscene. You have a huge issue when Justin accidentally exposed Janet but women performing sex acts, licking each other and groping each other is completely fine. How far you have fallen let the television that should be able to be watched by everyone become a show that should be rated R. The Recording Academy, NBC, ABC, CBS, Cardi B, and Megan Three Stallion should all be condemned and fined. MAJOR fines, an example needs to be set that the American people should not have to be exposed to an awards show that acted like a porno audition. Also, to just let this go with this behavior during COVID when we aren't even supposed to be under 3 feet close to each other. What kind of example are you allowing for the people, especially young people, public figures are above the law. Well, then they should be to I guess. You should be ashamed of yourselves.
