At 8pm during prime time the first performer was blatantly grabbing his crotch.

I was watching with my young grandson as it was before his bedtime . And he says to me that man must have to pee. So I immediately turned it off.

That should have been censored as it was totally inappropriate at that time of the evening.

Description

At 9:55pm EST, while my child was still awake, the Grammys aired a provocative and deeply sexualized performance of Sam Smith's song Unholy. This was on network broadcast television and the routine was designed to be deeply offensive to people of the Christian faith. The broadcast content contained lightly clad and sexualized same sex dancing, male to female trans persons sexualizing both their gender identities, the male to female lead performer wearing a garment so ill cut that her entire backside was showing etc. The performers dressed up with Satan hats and red suits with devil tails to hammer the point home. I have an eight year old child and it is not appropriate that a network show before bedtime is showing this content. I would file an exactly similar, and have filed exactly similar complaints, when broadcast material glorifying ugliness and evil are shown during children's waking hours. There is no artistic merit in a song called unholy being designed to offend anyone with any moral standards with its overt licentiousness.

Description

I am filing this complaint because of the vile, despicable, and downright disgusting performance, last night on the 2023 GRAMMY AWARDS SHOW, featuring SAM SMITH AND KIM PETRAS. It was wrought with evil imagery, and depicted DEVIL WORSHIPING ACOLYTES writhing around on the floor virtually naked, and in CAGES. It was broadcast on live television, and I cannot believe that CBS allowed it, UNEDITED, and with possibly children watching. I was thoroughly disgusted and not amused in any way. I demand that the FCC take immediate action against singers SAM SMITH and KIM PETRAS, The Grammy Award Show committee, CBS, and all of those involved. It was beyond reprehensible, distasteful, deeply offensive, and borderline pornographic.

Description

In the Supreme Court's 1964 landmark case on obscenity and pornography, Justice Potter Stewart famously wrote: "I know it when I see it." That case still influences FCC rules today, and complaints from the public about broadcasting objectionable content drive the enforcement of those rules. In other words, if you "know it when you see it" and find it objectionable, you can tell the FCC and ask us to check into it."

We saw it - we all know it was obscene, indecent, disgusting and at 5pm in the afternoon - no TV Station promoting to families should be playing BDSM Adult XXX images. Please please please evaluate and execute consequences to prevent TV shows like the CBS Network "Grammy's" who target all ages to watch for the deeply obscene, shocking images of Adult BDSM, pornographic displays and apparatus that belongs in an Adult club or with a pre-warning. These images are obscene and indecent crossing all all political, social. moral and religious boundaries. this wasnt offensive and disturbing to conservatives or liberals - but to individuals and families in general. As a family in this industry, this isn't "pushing the line"-it was imagery and footage you and TV executives would be horrified to find on their own children's devices. Take every measure, use every resource to protect against this happening again, pouring freely through our airwaves so unexpectedly, without warning.

There was zero warning of the satanic "worship" (as CBS themselves called it in a tweet) my family was about to witness. The dominatrixes in bondage dancing in cages, the fiery images of hell and Sam Smith dressed as the devil in latex was clearly meant to shock and upset people. The Grammys are supposed to be for Sunday evening family entertainment and that "performance" should never meet regulation requirements intended for younger viewers. It's disgraceful CBS used its platform in an attempt to further polarize and divide the country just for ratings.

I would like to file a complaint against CBS for the grammys performance on air during 6-9:30pm. BDSM was depicted and was more graphic than should be allowed on tv. A lady's breasts were hanging out. There was a panned shot of a woman's bikini clad crotch. This is absolutely unacceptable. "Art" or not, this shouldn't have been allowed. As a stepparent of a pre-teen, I'm extremely upset about what CBS has allowed on the channel. I'm uncertain of the exact time it aired, but it was between 6pm-9:30pm that the grammys were airing.

I hope something is done to stop this kind of thing from happening again. I thought this kind of thing was fixed after Janet Jackson's "wardrobe malfunction".

Mike Glenn of the Washington Times described CBS's tweet as, "disgusting (tho not surprising)."

I'm very appalled that we allow such vulgar imagery and tweets from CBS about how "they were getting ready to worship", during the Sam Smith "Satan segment"! Do we not have enough problems in this world than justifying satanism? I mean, what is this? "Freedom of speech?" Not too long ago, a Janet Jackson nipple slip, was inappropriate and tasteless, etc. But nothing going to be done about this? There is still a lot of Americans that are God loving and have values. We are already forced to listen to the racial bickering the local media shoves down our throat, that continuously divides this country. We are forced to listen to all the constant talk about trans-gendering and pronouns. The way the media grooms our children in thinking its ok for them to decide if they don't want to be a boy or girl. Come on! Now this Satanism of a Grammy show? Whatever happened to the Christian values of this country and television?!

I've never taken time to write a station on any programs or commercials I've seen that I disliked or didn't agree with. Until now.

I like to think I'm a very understanding and tolerant human being. I live life by the motto 'just because its not for me doesn't mean it can't be for someone else'. Each to their own per say. I carry on and mind my own business.

With that said, I can't just 'carry on' after the blatant blasphemy and dark depictions shown on the Grammys recently.

Im so very disappointed in CBS for having allowed and encouraged such an uncalled for showing. CBS knew what the overall agenda would be and THEY allowed it.

THEY knew the dark and ugly tone that would be shown, yet THEY stood with it and agreed to it. The motive the Grammys pushed this year was a disrespect to many religions.

Regardless of one's spiritual beliefs, NOTHING positive and uplifting came from that show. Nothing at all.

Had a mockery been made against Black Lives Matter, or the LGBTQ community, or native Americans, or cancer or autism..you name it, would they still have agreed to air it?

I would hope not because it's in poor taste to do so and because it hurts people.

CBS took quite a stance on this tasteless decision and I'm hopeful many Americans like myself will now do the same.

It may not matter that one person will now refuse to watch CBS because of this, but maybe if millions of us refuse they'll get it.

I'm a mother of a 17 year old son, who I try to raise with kindness, integrity and compassion for others. I also try to raise him to stand up for what is right in this world and to stand against hate and hurt. I'll be certain to use this situation as a reminder to him that we may tolerate many things, but we can't tolerate nor encourage disrespect.

A choice was made by CBS, sadly that choice failed many Americans, many families, and many children.

Thank you

Ticket: # 6021626 - Obscene and Indecent Material on CBS TV Channel

Date: 02/09/2023 01:15 AM

City/State/Zip: Tyler, Texas 75703

Description

The FCC is charged to protect the general public by regulating 'objectionable programming' and prohibiting, at times, what is allowed to broadcast on public television.

On Sunday night at 7 PM Central, the Grammy's were aired by CBS. Entertainers Kim Petras and Sam Smith did a ritualistic 'performance' that was so repugnant it angered people all across mainstream and social media channels. The lyrics, costumes and dance choreography of their duet, "Unholy", can accurately be described as evil. It glamorized adultery, sexual perversions like BDSM and devil worshiping, influences which cause social and spiritual decay in our society. In a breach of public trust and in violation of it's mandate, the FCC allowed this performance to be made freely available to innocent children and teens all across America.

This program should have never been on the air. It violated the FCC's "Law and Policy on Specific Kinds of Programming" in two categories:

- 1) Most would agree that the "Unholy" performance meets all 3 characteristics of 'obscene material', which is not protected by the first amendment to the US Constitution.

- 2) Indecent Material. FCC Law and Policy states "the courts have upheld Congress' prohibition of the broadcast of indecent material during times of the day when there is a reasonable risk that children may be in the audience". The Grammy's were aired from 5-8 PM Pacific, 7-10 PM Central, during hours which children all across America may have been watching it on their TVs. The FCC lowered the 'guard rails' that keep America's youth safe from these 'unholy' influences which lead young people towards destructive behavioral patterns and lifestyles. In time these lead to all sorts of problems such as criminal behavior, abuse and even suicide.

Take action. Please enforce congressional laws, court precedents and the FCC's policies. Do not ever again allow the Grammy's to be aired on public broadcast TV. Do this for the sake of our children growing up in this country who are being influenced everyday by what we allow over the airwaves and into our homes.

I ask in your sons name to cut the silver cord of evil and to restore good in our country swiftly in the mighty name of Jesus Christ! Amen

Mat 18:6 - But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Rev 21:8 - But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

Rev 20:10 - And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

I as a Christian thought that the Grammys that aired at 8 PM on CBS, was satanic and teaching our younger generation it's ok to just accept that this is the way life is. But in reality it's powers are luring them in.

Sam Smith's indecency with his unholy performance. Felt dark, satanic if you review. I'm all about freedom of religion, but not this type being forced down the public. Further his music video has a Mens pissing contest on him. A wise one said "You can worship the Sun but don't burn me with it." They also said "You can worship a rock but don't cast it upon me." Concerned this type of behavior is being publicized and is being used programmatically with music in our current society.

I am outraged tha CBS allowed the satanic performance by Sam Smith. This was pure evil and of no entertainment value. This is on a national channel not a cable independent channel. Children have more access to this channel than others. It was devil worship broadcast around the world. I Don't want my family subjected to this trash. Heads should roll at the top and they should be you should see that CBS is charged and punished for this exposure to family's and children. Waiting to see what happens.

As a whole, the Grammys have allowed things to escalate more and more over the years. There are no more performances that parents can safely let their kids watch anymore. Instead, more and more performances are now including very explicit sexual content. It's one thing for these types of performances to be on the MTV video music awards but it's a completely different story when it's on one of the mainstream channels like CBS. I would prefer to not have to worry about my child possibly seeing a horrible performance by Cardi B with WAP or this years performance by Sam Smith with all the sexual innuendos. It seems like the more risqu  the song, that is the one that will be performed on TV that night.

Really surprised that such a blatant display of Satanism was allowed on television without a warning from CBS stating its nature. Or better yet, how about CBS erring on good judgement and saying NO???

I'm not particularly religious, but as an openly gay man I think this is harmful to the LGBT community that he "represents", and I found it vile and very negative. We should be promoting positivity, and that was anything but.

I would also like to bring to your attention the recent Grammy performance by Sam Smith on CBS. The performance featured satanic and demonic imagery that was disturbing and offensive to many viewers. This type of content has no place on public broadcasting and should not be aired.

I believe that Sam Smith's performance was in poor taste and did not consider the impact it may have on the audience. Public broadcasting should set a higher standard for the content it airs and not promote or glorify negative and harmful imagery.

I strongly urge public broadcasting organizations to reconsider their decision to air such performances and to prioritize the well-being and protection of their audience. The airing of satanic and demonic imagery, whether in a performance or otherwise, is not acceptable and goes against the responsibility of public broadcasting to protect its audience.

I am absolutely appalled at the content CBS allowed during the Grammy awards. It is absolutely disgusting that CBS allowed Sam Smith to have a performance that glorified and depicted Satanism. The fact that he LITERALLY dressed up like Satan in red clothes and horns with dancers in cages is beyond my wildest dreams. CHILDREN and young teens watch this because they want to see their favorites like Taylor Swift ,ect to win awards, not to see Satanic content and transgenderism shoved down our throats.

Description

I am deeply offended and disappointed at the allowance of such a display of Satan worshiping in this performance. This is nothing less than a direct attack on Christians and God. It's an abomination that both of these individuals are doing, but to have this atrocity displayed on television is completely inappropriate and disrespectful. Anything to make a dollar is disgusting. If people choose to view themselves as a male or female or a cat or a tree, well thats on them and it is a mental illness. Instead of encouraging that behavior and changing laws to accept it, we need to help them. In the meantime, this filth needs to remain off air! My complaint is not against my cable provider, rather CBS for airing this.

This type of performance should not be broadcast for children to see. Not only that but they are mocking Christianity. Christians do not mock Satanist so there should be a level of respect. Also, there is no reason why the grammys should allow a satanic ritual to play out tv for every to participate. This is disturbing and something needs to be done about it

I don't know many people that even watch the Grammy Awards anymore considering the fact that tend to fall all over themselves over songs like "WAP" (I don't know if that's the actual name, but you can look it up as WAP song lyrics and just read the first three lines and have the general idea. The GARBAGE that was allowed to air on NATIONAL television during the Awards is pure and simple trash. I don't care if the singers are gay, nonbinary, transgender, translucent, or think they are dolphins, but apparently it should be some huge thing that they were ANYTING but heterosexual. Do you have ANY idea how hard it is to find GOOD PROGRAMMING that does not concern sex? EVEN IN KIDS cartoons, for crying out loud! I don't know who has the job of deciding what kind of garbage is allowed on television but whoever it is, certainly FAILED at their job when allowing the Grammy Awards to show that devil worshiping pile of crap on the air. Probably five and certainly no more than 10 years ago, those morons would have been run off the stage and out of town. THAT is the time that my child was born in and its HIGH time that all the sex and gender idiots STOPPED shoving their satanic crap down the throats of all Americans. If they don't have the self-control to do it themselves, then the people and agencies installed to do it for them need to remember their duty to ALL the public and stop this one-sided campaign of pushing alternative choices off on everybody's children.

The glorification of Satan & demonic ritualism should not be on prime time tv. The increasing agenda of such content is out of control, the conditioning is not only inappropriate but mortifying that it is even allowed and approved by the network, producers and FCC. It is creating a dangerous environment for faith believers as they are attacked for speaking out on this evil behavior - it is not entertainment . Devil horns, the locking tongue, singing "unholy", the intentions are obvious
