

AFFORDABLE CONNECTIVITY PROGRAM

COULD YOU USE $75 OFF YOUR HOME OR MOBILE INTERNET BILL?

The Affordable Connectivity Program provides eligible households on qualifying Tribal lands with up to a $75 discount off their monthly internet bill, or $30/month on non-Tribal lands. The program also provides one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet purchased through a participating provider when the eligible household contributes at least $10 but less than $50 toward the purchase.

If you received a Federal Pell Grant during the current award year, you may qualify for the Affordable Connectivity Program!

Didn't receive a Pell Grant? You may also qualify if your household income is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, or if a member of the household meets at least one of the criteria below:

- Participates in any of the following Tribal specific programs: Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance, Tribal TANF, Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations, or Tribal Head Start (income based);
- Participates in any of the following assistance programs: SNAP, Medicaid, Federal Public Housing Assistance, Veterans Pension or Survivor Benefits, SSI, WIC, or Lifeline;
- Participates in the Free and Reduced-Price School Lunch Program or the School Breakfast Program, including through the USDA Community Eligibility Provision; or
- Meets the eligibility criteria for a participating broadband provider's existing low-income internet program.

Two-Steps to Enroll

- 1 Go to AffordableConnectivity.gov to submit an application or print a mail-in application..
- 2 Contact your preferred participating provider to select an eligible plan and have the discount applied to your bill.

Some providers may have an alternative application that they will ask you to complete. Eligible households must both apply for the program and contact a participating provider to select a service plan.
