The half time show was the furthest thing from a "family friendly" broadcast as possible. The depiction of strippers, close-ups of crotch and anus, the orgy by back up dancers, naked buttocks, are NOT APPROPRIATE for children viewers. I should not have to send children out of the room when watching a FOOTBALL GAME. The NFL and FOX are contributing to the total sexualization of our culture and cramming it down our throats. No where is safe.

This performance by the the two female performers ie. Shakira and Jennifer Lopez was patently obscene for the viewing time slot and vowing audiences that would be watching. This performance was on par or exceeded the 2004 super bowl halftime performance that received a fine. This current performance needs to be examined on those standards and be held to such. A fine should be leveled against th NFLfor allowing this performance to go ahead and FOX for televising it.

Description

The Super Bowl halftime show, aired on the Fox network on Sunday, February 2, 2020, was grossly offensive and inappropriate as measured by contemporary community standards. The headline performer's costumes consisted of far too small, in the front and back, black thongs revealing the performer's buttocks (and close to everything else) as she crudely bent over to air her backside to the camera. Later in the performance, she backed her bottom into the groin of the male raps singer and proceeded to bounce against him in a sexual manner. These too revealing costumes and simulated sex acts on stage are completely inappropriate to air on national TV to an audience that includes many young children. There should have been a prior warning of explicit content to enable families to remove their children from the viewing area. There needs to be limits imposed on the amount of buttocks revealed and shaken in front of the camera, and an end to the simulated sex acts of male/female grinding. We found this exhibit to be completely offensive and outside the expectations for family viewing.

The striptease show with scantily covered women is inappropriate for children's viewing and offensive to women. ## Description

The Shakira/JLo bump and grind show was disgusting, but when I saw little children involved I thought, "What is wrong with this country?" I heard people say their performance "empowered" women. How does what those women did/show empower women? Does it empower me to take off my clothes and dance in front of people with my thong and do lots of crotch and butt shots? Will the people then finally say of me, "That woman is empowered! I want my little girl to see this so she will know what an empowered woman looks like!" Or did "empowered" mean that Shakira and JLo were physically strong with great cardio? OK. I can understand that for how could they shake and sway and squat, while also screaming, for so long without a great physical empowerment? May I suggest a competitive weight-lifting, breath-holding, squatting, screaming and shaking contest between them would have made more sense, and been more interesting i.e. the Olympics, to showcase "empowerment" to little girls... but no less disgusting OR RIDICULOUS as what we saw Sunday night.

I watched the halftime show with my 4 baby girls (ages 3, 7, 9, and 11) last night and look back now as one of the worst decisions I have made as a parent. As a #girdad I'm all about empowering women. However, last nights halftime show was not empowering but rather objectifying and in a way abusive to young minds. My 2 oldest girls, ages 9 and 11, were left confused and disgusted by the performance. My oldest even asked me to turn the channel as she was too uncomfortable with what she was seeing. I was left embarrassed and speechless.

At a minimum the NFL should be required to issue a parental advisory before exposing children to such crude, sexual, and disgusting content.

I believe that the Half-time show featuring both JLo and Shakira was very offensive, especially with children watching. This type of show may be appropriate in Vegas, but the vulgar costumes and gratuitous crotch shots and disgusting "dancing" simulating sex acts should not be aired on prime time during Super Bowl. Why show something only half the population of adults wants to see on TV!? And that's not to mention what we know our kids are seeing on TV!? Do we have to start boycotting half time? I'm disgusted and disappointed in the lack of oversight on these performances and costumes. This needs to end!

Please do something to ensure that public tv stations cannot send programming into my house that is so sexually explicit that I must restrict viewing. The fact that for part of the show young children were participating only made it worse. The halftime show by Shakira and Jennifer Lopez was disgusting and steps should be taken to reprimand Fox so that future shows do not display such blatant sexual content during an ostensibly family-oriented program.

The show featured a striptease, belly-dancing in revealing clothing, both artists spreading their legs for the camera while wearing skimpy, sexually enticing clothing, pole-dancing reminiscent of a stripper bar, crotch grabbing, simulated sex, prominent shaking of buttocks, and more.

I was shocked and embarrassed that such a display would occur during the halftime show that I was watching with my 4-year old grandson.

I am asking you to please investigate this program and take steps to keep this type of programming out of our prime time hours. Thank you.

I found the super bowl half time show of 2020 to be highly inappropriate for family viewing hours! There were millions of children watching the super bowl and they should not be exposed to women dressed in hardly anything, girating all over he floor, grabbing their crotches, dancing on stripper poles and when J'Lo bent over at one point, you can see some kind of pad or panty showing and saw most of her bottom. ## Description

The FCC still has rules about decency on network television between certain hours when children are watching. It is well established that children are watching during the Super Bowl. I had to send mine out of the room as soon as Jennifer Lopez took the stage in what looked like a two-sided thong and buttless chaps. The camerawork was outrageously gross, zooming in on Lopez's barely covered crotch, so close that the viewer could see some sort of silver maxi pad sticking out from either side of her way-too-small fraud of a garment. If that thing wasn't riding up between her front-hole lips, then my 60-inch HDTV television was lying to me, and HD never lies.

The last time a Super Bowl halftime show was this gross it cost CBS $550,000 for broadcasting Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake's ridiculous "wardrobe malfunction" stunt. In my opinion, this is just as bad. As the video above shows, at one point Lopez bends over and exposes her entire backside to the camera. The only thing separating her anus from the camera is a pair of sheer stockings and a black thong. This is not okay. What the hell is wrong with the NFL? I thought they were going to go more "family-friendly" after the Jackson-Timberlake fiasco? Also, the cameramen were focused on JLo's crotch for most of the performance. I can't in good conscience show more here than that clip above. If you want to see it go find it. But it's indecent and totally inappropriate for the Super Bowl halftime show.

Shakira was not as offensive, although the cameramen also could not stay away from her crotch. But at least she was wearing an imitation of a skirt and she wasn't on a stripper pole. Yep. JLo did a striptease pole dance while barely-dressed backup dancers simulated an orgy underneath her. It was disgusting.

Th Super Bowl 2020 halftime show was disgusting and completely inappropriate on every level. There should be stiff fines for everyone involved in allowing this disgusting display air. It was not appropriate for ANYONE to watch but especially children. Here is a link to someone who summed up my feelings perfectly! Shame on everyone who put this show together and allowed it to be aired. I'm just glad my husband does not watch the half time shows and left the room to check his emails.

Description

How was the NFL, and the Fox network, allowed to broadcast the Super Bowl halftime show as it was? Did they not have a rehearsal, and were they not aware that it would be so raunchy? (Of course, they were!!) For a significant amount of time the cameramen were focused on Jennifer Lopez and Shakira's crotches. And having JLo bend over and expose her buttocks to the world, with only sheer stockings and thong preventing total nudity, was indecent.

I don't understand how the network was permitted to show that. If these women's fan-base want to see them pole dance and gyrate around in obscene movements, let them buy a ticket. It was totally inappropriate for the Super Bowl halftime show.

I thought these shows were going to be more family friendly after Janet Jackson's so called "wardrobe malfunction" a few years back.

These women are talented. They have great voices, and are good dancers, but I and my family should not have been subjected to their disgusting movements. And we should be able to expect better from a network that broadcast an entertainment show into millions of households.

Jennifer Lopez's outfit that was mostly nude with some strategically placed coverings with her dancing on a pole. Super Bowl halftime show was absolutely disgusting and degrading to women. And on top of that to have young girls join the show after Jayla had pole danced & practically showed all of her genital area to the entire nation is disgusting. Women like J Lo and Shakira should be more mindful of their powerful influence upon the young women of our country and how they view themselves. I'm disgusted that national television would allow a performance of this sort during something that is viewed by families. No wonder people are moving away from regular TV to things like Netflix and Disney+ so we can actually choose to monitor what we see. This in my opinion was worse than Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake back in 2004.

Description

The Half Time Show for the Super Bowl 2020 was lewd and indecent. It was more like what I would think goes on at a strip club only on a larger scale. The costumes were scanty and indecent. There were sexually charged gyrations. There was crotch grabbing and a lot of camera shots showing almost naked rear ends and direct crotch shots. I found it extremely offensive and inappropriate for television viewing let alone during a family type event in which families are watching the game together. I can't call it porn because I didn't see any actual sex acts, but it was pretty close to it... way more than what I would call soft porn. What's done is done, but shows like this should not be allowed again, and Pepsi and Fox should be fined for breaking FCC rules for indecency. To be completely hones, I didn't actually watch the Half Time Show because we were on our way home from church services at that time, but when I read a couple of things this morning about the controversy over the show, I went to You Tube to see what was so bad. It was even worse than I expected. I couldn't even watch the whole thing. The part I saw was embarrassing to me, and I can't imagine why it was allowed to be on TV.

Description

The half-time act at this year's Superbowl was beyond indecent. It is hard to believe that trash like this is broadcast to young folks who have no ability to process these sexual images. The stripper pole, crotch grabbing, suggestive tongue wagging, twerking indecent dancing ...the whole thing. These acts were rehearsed so there can be no excuse.

I was completely appalled by the Super Bowl half-time show. Children were watching (ages 3, 6, 9, and 13) and were sent out of the room for the indecency. It was during prohibited hours for such content. Jennifer Lopez doing a strip tease on a pole wearing next-to-nothing, with camera angles showing her crotch and dancers dancing like an orgy. It was disrespectful, disgusting, indecent, offensive, and depicted sexual conduct that was patent!

The Half Time show during the Super Bowl on 2/2/2020 was absolute filth. The Super Bowl is supposed to be a family friendly program, however, many commercials are questionable and their Half Time Show went beyond the realm of decency. Pole dancing, crotch grabbing, behind shaking, "microphone" that looked like a sex toy; that program was NOT appropriate for anyone, let alone children under 18 years of age.

For the record, the Super Bowl halftime show was 2 sexual in nature for a family show. The women were dressed as strippers basically doing there exercises on stripper poles. And most disgusting was the crotch shots and grabbing their crotches. Disgusting! This is still America do we have values any more! I'm very disappointed that my family was subjected to that Joe of feminism at its lowest. No wonder men have a hard time keeping their hands off and going further. Women can't have it both ways and this glamorizing of sexuality is disturbing. (b) (6) citizen of the United States of America. When you don't know that

Children and church groups who always watch the SuperBowl were subjected to Jennifer Lopez almost completely nude, spread eagled on a stripper pole. Please tell me why the lude outfits and dancing of halftime performers and cheerleaders does not require any type of parental TV-MA rating where the content is known to parents before watching a game. ## Description

Broadcast on Fox networks on 2/2/2019, I found the superbowl halftime show to be particularly offensive and indecent. The show featured barely-clothed performers simulating sexual motions and engaging in a simulated on-screen orgy. The superbowl is historically viewed by children and families. FCC rules for prohibited content include specific time frames to avoid children viewing sexually suggestive or explicit material. This show has violated the FCC's rules, and the network should be held accountable for broadcasting this indecent content.

The NFL and Fox should be fined heavily for the disgusting halftime show in Sunday's Superbowl. Jennifer Lopez doing a stripper routine, on a pole yet, while "clothed" in a barely concealing thong and butt-revealing chaps was not the family friendly show I thought we were supposed to be getting since the Justin Timberlake/Janet Jackson debacle 16 years ago. If we can't expect the networks and the NFL to do a better job than this perverted simulated orgy, then can we expect your agency to make it more painful economically for them when they do flaunt morality so excessively? And what's the message for women here - act and dress like a whore, dance like a stripper, and when men stare at your crotch they can be accused of sexual abuse and virtual rape? This is so over the top wrong on so many levels it can't go unpunished. Please.

Inappropriate sexual implications during the Super Bowl Halftime show, not appropriate for family viewing. This was not on a pay Cable channel or late at night, but during a sporting event which families watch together. Sexual pole dancing, simulated sex acts, crotch grabbing, squatting with legs wide open and minimal clothing...none of this was comfortable for me to watch as an adult, let alone having my children see. I am so very disappointed in the trashy, raunchy and tasteless show that took place during the 2020 Superbowl half time show. It was a disgrace. This use to be a family event for us and yet, now there are scantily clad older women (not that age matters) giratting all over the stage and making vulger gestures. Unfortunately, my children were not allowed to watch this and as we had to make them go into the other room. Why also were they signing in a language that is not native to the majority of veiwers in AMERICA. We were so disappointed and believe your leadership in this agency should be called into question to allow this. I firmly believe a decent show that is family friendly could be put in place of all that nonsense. What we allow, we accept. America is a great nation but we can do better than this. Please consider truly regulating television again. Thank you for your consideration.

It is my understanding that there are rules about what can be shown on television on major networks during hours children are watching. Therefore it is with dismay that I saw the content of the Super Bowl halftime show during a purportedly family friendly event in daytime hours, where what amounted to a strip club show with extremely provocative dancing, bear naked performers, and up close shots of private areas. My children were confused and disturbed and we had to turn off the channel to protect them from adult, overtly sexual imagery. The FCC should conform to their own rules about decency.

Description

Extremely inappropriate and raunchy for a halftime show where children would be watching. Acts included:

1. exposing practically naked backside (looked like thong with leather straps in place?? and crotch area in the camera while gyrating in a sexual manner. This went on for quite some time of the performance.
2. coming down a stripper's pole doing a striptease practically naked, hardly anything on clothes-wise, same with the dancers depicting an orgy-type of activity. It was disgusting!!

The message to our young girls is simple here, it's okay and actually encouraged to act like a prostitute and stripper, be a sex object for this is what will empower you. I'm so tired of the mixed messages we give to our young girls and boys and this show did nothing but confuse and corrupt their innocence! Please do something so this stops happening. This should be off the table especially for the Superbowl. If they want to act this way, keep it in their R rated movies where only 17 years old can go.

Description

The disgust level I am feeling right now cannot be measured on any scale. The FCC and Fox MUST act quickly to remedy this act of violence against women. As a woman of 60+ years, I find this kind of despicable and grotesque display totally unwarranted on Prime Time television. To think of all the young, impressionable minds that watched that display of vulgarity last night makes me shudder. And the entertainer known as "JLo" had the audacity to allow her 11 year old daughter to participate in this blatant nudity and discrimination of women and young ladies all over the world. America is still a Christian nation, and as a Christian, I find this kind of programming absolutely offensive and it should be rebuked and fined! A message must be sent to stations like Fox that on one hand we have millions of women being trafficked and abused, and on the other hand we have women like these, claiming to be "feminists" and prancing about like whores and they wonder why so many women are abused and raped and trafficked in this country alone. ## Description

The half time show on Superbowl Sunday, with Jennifer Lopez on a stripper pole, in two outfits that no child should have seen and with cameras pointed at her crotch and rear end constantly were obscene and should have been X-rated TV viewing. I was appalled and if I had children in the room, I would have made them leave. I was quite offended when the camera repeatedly showed her crotch and rear end in extremely provocative gyrations. Who reviewed her costumes and this show for prime time family viewing? This show was for a strip club not a family show. Lopez knew her costume was inappropriate because she covered up when the children, including her daughter, came on stage, so this alone, should result in action by the Commission. Shakira's outfit was not much better, hardly covering her. Fox News should be heavily fined for this soft-porn display and there should be some standards put in place. I read the FCC's determination following the Janet Jackson fiasco. The commission determined at that time: "...the halftime show is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium." Although that determination was made based on Jackson's partial nudity, Lopez's outfits, which suggested she was mostly nude and a stripper on a pole, coupled with her overtly and improper sexualized performance was "patently offensive" given community standards. DO SOMETHING. I don't need to add the file of the half time show. It's readily available on Fox News, as if they are proud of it. They must be channeling Roger Ailes. Think what normalizing this type of behavior does to young children - this is not right.

I thought it was disgusting when a 50 year old woman ripped off her skirt to show a dental floss sized strap to cover her vagina. Then the camera people zoomed in on it for the entire show. If that isn't enough she proceeded to hump a stripper pole while dancers had an ogry under her. I had to send my kids out of the room. it's been a full day and I'm still grossed out. I don't want my daughter to think it's ok to show your crotch and shove it in everyone's face. You would think a woman in her 50's would know better and show some class. I really hope something is done about this. Millions of young children watched that and think because it's on tv it might be ok. When it isn't.

I was shocked at the pornographic images throughout the Superbowl 2020 half time show. With grandmom, my children and husband watching--this performance was not at all family friendly and promoted women as nothing more than sexual objects to be gawked at. The NFL and network ought to be ashamed for allowing this type of show to invade the homes of many who try to promote the value and dignity of woman--especially in light of the "Me Too" movement and sex trafficking issues plaguing our society. It is the responsibility of all those in charge to ask themselves if a performance actually promotes the value of women apart from sexual objects or if it ultimately gives a nod to exploiting them. This show was not fit for family television--bad role model for our sons and daughters--only contributing to woman being seen as sexual objects--nothing else.

I have never filed a complaint before, but I could not believe the inappropriate nature of the halftime show for this year's Superbowl. The crotch shots, risque dancing and the pole dancing was better suited for an adults- only after party than a show that millions of children were watching. I was streaming it from my ipad on an airplane, and the dancing was so suggestive that not only did I not let my own kids watch, but I tried to shield it from the view of other neaby child passengers. This is NOT appropriate for a sporting event of such popularity when you know how many children will be watching. I'd like to see an apology issued, and to not see this type of performace again on TV.

The halftime show for the Super Bowl was a slap in the face to all the good that has come of the MeToo movement. Crass, hypersexualization of women, and then involving children. It's disturbing that this was somehow deemed family friendly when it so clearly depicted sexual behaviors. How can we possibly tell men/boys to respect women, to see them as more than sex toys when we showcase this kind of thing as something worthy of female aspiration? Children and families should not have to hurry to turn the channel or be subjected to this kind of inappropriate content. The cognitive dissonance between this and the metoo movement is dumbfounding. Clean this up.

Description

The superbowl halftime show was ridiculously sexualized to the point of indecency. The two performers, Shakira and Jennifer Lopez, behaved akin to strippers at a gentlemen's club. Their performances featured:

- 1) Shakira implied bondage by wrapping a rope around herself.
- 2) Bevis of athletic young women thrusting their pelvises at the TV cameras.
- 3) Shakira writhed on the floor as a rapper bent over her body.
- 4) Shakira ululated while flicking her tongue at the camera.
- 5) J-Lo and her back-up dancers wore leather bondage outfits reminiscent of the leather gear fetish gay men wore in San Francisco's Folsom District in the 1970s and 1980s.
- 6) J-Lo wagging her half-naked butt at the camera.
- 7) J-Lo and her male backup dancers kept grabbing their own crotches.
- 8) J-Lo did some pole-dancing in a minimalist costume that barely covered her lady parts, while presiding over what is meant to look like an orgy, with people in white bondage wear writhing below her (plus more crotch-grabbing).
- 9) J-Lo freak-dancing, which happens when a woman backs her butt up to a man's crotch and they rub against each other as they dance.
- 10) The cameras focusing on the butts and crotches of both Shakira and J-Lo

Please fine the artists and networks responsible for this moral debacle, and make the fines to be substantial enough to discourage them from doing this again.

The half time show during the Super Bowl was very inappropriate for the many families watching the game. If you do not know the number of "crouch shots", you can ask the high school students where I teach. Why can't the entertainment be clean? In a time where we are wanting to teach young girls to be more than sex objects, why were women touching themselves and skimpily dressed? On the day when sex trafficking is at a year high, why not help the situation instead? I am appalled!

Description

Please, please, please do something about the inappropriate airing! We had to shield our children's eyes and fast-forward the 2020 Halftime Show from the beginning! Wardrobes alone were indecent. Dancing was demeaning and and the striptease was stupidly shocking. I enjoyed JLo's music growing up... but feel bad for her now, and will no longer be entertaining she or Shakira's music in our home. We're big Chiefs fans, and even bigger on trying to live for God, so the Super Bowl this year was like a fantastic sandwich... that had a corner dipped in the toilet. Ruins the fun... especially for families. For innocent children. And as a counselor I'll say professionally, it was unhealthy viewing for obviously married men and women, but for single adults as well. We felt last year's Maroon 5 performance was inappropriate. Wow.

Wake up America. Wake up to the TRUTH World!

FCC: Please bring pure, family- friendly viewing back!

On another note, my husband & I were also sad to hear drag queen and pro-LGBTQ commercials were approved yet abortion survivor testimonial commercials were rejected. That's wrong. If others want to slap our cheeks with their push so be it, but we have a voice too, and should be allowed to share the truth, even if others don't want to listen.

Description

My family and I were appalled by the super bowl halftime show! After Janet's incident you made a commitment to keep the halftime shows family friendly. Having a performer ride a stripper pole, push her vagina which was rarely covered forward into the camera with a hip thrust, basically mooning the camera not once but twice, with what basically amounted to a thong, and again gyrating on a stripper pole w/ the smallest of a garment on, is not family friendly! We would like to file a complaint to the fcc for allowing this to be shown during a football game which is even advertised as a family friendly environment! What was allowed was pornographic and appalling. Also, to allow young girls to perform in the middle of the porn show was as low as tv can sink!! How an 11 year old was allowed to sing during this is appalling and in bad taste. This halftime show made Janet Jackson's wardrobe malfunction look g rated!!! We turned the station but it was on again in a att store while we were trading phones today. This ATT store advertises Directv to the public and was playing the halftime show on repeat!!!!!! Something should be and has to be done to fine these women and vulgar over sexualized, pornographic material should never be allowed in the future!!!!!! Please do something!!!

Description

This was a totally inappropriate, insulting sex show masquerading as entertainment. I grew up in the '60's, so I am no prude. But, I would certainly not have wanted my 12 y.o. grandson and his three younger sisters watching this. Do the producer and entertainers of this sex show think that this display in front of a billion people is more likely to decrease assaults on women or more likely to increase assaults on women especially from young men with immature or deranged behavioral inhibitions? We know with certainty (there's an enormous psychological literature from the 1960's on this) that watching organized violence disinhibits violent behavior among children, those mentally-vulnerable, sociopaths or those suffering from paranoid schizophrenia. The normalization of inappropriate sexual titillation on television is more likely than not to lead to sexual assaults committed by men who are sexually immature, isolated and lack social ability and self-control. It is also contributing to the coarsening of our society's manners and mores. In other words, this half-time show, in my opinion, had no socially-redeeming value and was little more than a glorification of nearly-explicit pornography. A significant fine from all involved in this show, NFL, sponsors, tv network, streaming services carrying the program, etc. ought to be levied with the monies raised going to women's shelters, rape crisis centers and emergency medical facilities (which, I understand have a sorely-limited supply of outdated rape kits) and perhaps even re-education classes for those involved in bringing this event into living rooms filled with children around the world.

After the airing of this pornographic show, human trafficked sex slaves were in greater demand! Hundreds of female sex workers were undoubtedly transported to the Miami area in windowless vans and tractor trailers to “service” the Super Bowl visitors!

The FCC has sunk to a record low! To allow the sexual objectification of females during a family viewing time slot! You should all be ashamed!

Furthermore, as a family event, there is no place for such a pornographic program to take place with children, young men, young women, and families watching. It is widely known that the super bowl attracts the largest number of sex trafficking deals in the United States, and a program like yesterdays supports the vile appetites for sexual exploitation of children and women. I believe the American people deserve an apology from these broadcasters for promoting this program. I also hope that the halftime show will either improve its content to be family friendly or NOT be broadcasted on television. Thank you.

What the heck? Why does this keep getting worse? Decency isn't a definition reserved for nudity. In fact, there are plenty of times where nudity might be understandable for TV (Schindler's List, for example). In this case, the half-time show was anything but family friendly. In fact, it crossed into family-unfriendly.

Was the performance live? Yes, I get it.

Was the performance rehearsed? Absolutely.

Organizers knew the plans for the half-time show, and moved forward with it anyway. Action should be taken (even if just a hand-slap) to let the Big Game organizers/sponsors know that the hearts of the youngest Americans should be taken into account.

Please address the Superbowl Half-Time show.

Cari Keleman said it best -- "Why can't the NFL present a halftime show that multiple generations can enjoy together?"

The "performance" of someone barely clothed during a major TV event, in which children (including my 4 and 1 year old sons) were watching fits the very definition of indecency. Since the policies in 2004 required a fine, those same policies require a fine in this case. Crotch and rear-end shots, barely-there outfits, stripper pole and suggestive dancing are inappropriate for a national institution like the Super Bowl that draws millions of viewers, including families.

Instead of empowering women, it was demeaning toward our whole gender and a giant step backward in our fight for respect and equality. Appalling role models for young girls who idolize the 2 pop superstars and it definitely sends the wrong message to young boys who were watching.

I believe all involved should be HEAVILY fined so this does not become a worsening trend for future Super Bowls.

It's time to start demanding more of not only the networks but the entertainers as well, each year it gets worse and worse. Stripper poles belong in bedrooms and strip clubs. The crotch grabbing disgusting! How did you allow a sliding up close crotch shot on National TV! Our children and our nation as a whole deserve better. There is a time and a place but this was not it!!! Their excuse being celebrating Latino and African women/ culture??? I'm a big fan of dance, I love the tv show The World of dance. This was not good dancing, well maybe in parts! However it was overshadowed by the sex show and children in cages. American deserves an apology from the networks, The NFL, and the performers. If I were Latino or African American I would be appalled that these people believe this was a representation of the culture! Absolutely not!! Be better, do better, and demand better. ### Description

During the Superbowl Halftime show from Miami, on 2/2/2020, the NFL and Fox Network aired a performance by Jennifer Lopez and Shakira that goes beyond what should be shown during Prime Time hours (approximately 8PM ET). The performers were scantily clad, one grabbed her genitalia region and another performed a pole dance. For the NFL who allegedly takes a stance on Sex Trafficking, this performance objectify's women, which is contrary to human decency in light of the #metoo movement. If I had an impressionable daughter I'd have some explaining to do regarding this. This is on par with the 2004 Janet Jackson "Wardrobe Malfunction" to which you levied fines on the offenders. Please consider such in this case as well.

Description

This show was an over-sexualized exhibit of indecency. There were thousands, likely millions, of children, including my 13 year old son with ASD, watching the Superbowl. Society has pushed us to teach our boys to be very careful about how you look at and treat women. JLo and Shakira are very talented women, they could have done this show with some integrity, instead they objectified and sexualized themselves, especially JLo, by not even covering her butt and repeatedly touching her crotch. This is outrageous and all involved, Fox, NFL, Pepsi, Roc Nation, and the performers, should be hit with very high fines. They should be fined, monitored for future halftime shows, and be forced to, at the very least, make it very clear that their programming is not for children.

Description

Excuse my vulgarity in describing this; however, it is impossible to explain how vulgar this was without vivid descriptions. So.. In no way is it appropriate for a stripper pole; camera zooming in on multiple shots of a barely covered crotch (one of which the woman sat with her legs spread to allow the camera better access to her barely covered vagina); the display of various sex positions (including doggie style where the camera zoomed in to highlight the barely covered vagina and anus)... to be part of an American tradition during Prime Time hours. As an adult, I choose whether to watch a rated R show or movie. My husband and I are not prudes, but are conservative in nature. Neither one of us would willingly attend a striptease. Knowing my grandchildren were watching this sickened me. I do not want my granddaughters thinking they need to be sexual in order to succeed in life. I do not want my grandsons thinking it is okay to view women as objects. Those women are beautiful and talented. The dancing and music was fantastic. J-Lo did not need to do a striptease, pole dance and pose in such outrageous sexual positions for the camera.

Description

I was once again upset to see the half-time show. I believe there should be a rating applied to the show before it is decided if it can be shown as a family exhibit. The NFL has always been a family game to watch with your children. Therefore, the half-time show should be previewed and a rating put on it. Parents need to be able to decide if a P, NC17, or R rating show is suitable for their family. I remember when my boys agreed to watch the super bowl and Janet Jackson exposed her breast. Come on, can we be responsible adults and give a rating. I personally believe every half-time show should be family friendly. If the super bowl is considered for the entire family....then the half-time show should be also. Thanks for listening.

Description

The entertainment during the 2020 Super Bowl half time show was not suited for children or families. The was at the least, soft porn and not appropriate. These type of shows should be shown in bars, not on TV that children watch. Please, reconsider showing more respectable entertainment, or I will boycott all future shows.

Description

The Super Bowl halftime show was 100% pornography w women mimicking masturbation in close up crotch shots, imitating sex acts with men while twerking with bare bottoms. It objectified women and prostituted children at the end to make it look wholesome, when children should not have even been present. The SB is a family viewing event and even as a woman I had to look away in disgust and embarrassment. This should NEVER happen. The NFL has finally gone too far. They should be sanctioned financially and future shows should be subject to ordinary standards of public decency. Calling this "athleticism" or "a salute to Latinas" is disingenuous and dishonest.

Description

The halftime show for the Superbowl on regular Tv and during hours where children are watching...is NOT a time there should be stripper poles, half nakedness, and grabbing crotches... The game was on at 7 pm and it was NOT empowering for women... It was degrading and sad... What about the little women who are watching? It was truly sad...

Description

The halftime show was basically soft core porn shown on primetime TV. J Lo wore extremely revealing, sexual outfits, pole danced, and had backup dancers barely dressed doing clearly sexual gyrating and dances. It's something you'd expect to see at a gentleman's club, not during the biggest spring event of the year with millions of young children watching. What an embarrassment, I would never want my young children, or any four that matter, to be subject to that garbage again. I couldn't even stand to watch it as an adult. Very poor taste, and definitely not planning on watching again in the future.

Description

This halftime show depicted women pole dancing, grabbing their crotches, shaking their boobs and butts, and extremely suggested ways. It is one thing to pay to go see the show. It is completely another thing to broadcast this into the homes of millions of Americans. Homes were some young man in the room easily observed male role models looking appreciatively at this display and their young impressionable minds being empowered to object if I women. Rooms where young girls watch the boys and men in the room and their reactions, and internalized in subtle ways that the only value women have in the eyes of men is the quality of their equipment. Homes where women and girls are being verbally, emotionally, physically, or sexually abused by men. Homes where families have been impacted by sex addiction, porn addiction, and homes where parents are trying to teach their children a better standard. This was forced upon millions of families in what was it supposed to be family entertainment that was broadcast over free TV during the primetime hour. It was shameful and completely unacceptable.

Shakira and JLo and dancers dressed in bondage gear, grabbing their crotches, dancing on poles, you could see their crotches. Disappointed that the FCC would permit this content during family show time hours. We had to have the children go and play in the room. Totally inappropriate. This is ok for their concerts where as an adult we can decide if they go. But to show this it was disappointing. Sent the wrong message to young girls.

My children were watching the Super Bowl when the halftime show started. It was softcore pornography with women gyrating in a sexual manner, the performer spreading her legs and touching her crotch and bending over with her bottom barely covered. It continued with a pole dance and disgusting sexual moves by some of the dancers. I felt certainly a disclaimer should have been made to take children out of the room or turn the channel. I found the content of the Super Bowl half time show distasteful. Having families exposed to such "sexual entertainment" is wrong. Let me say I have no problem with Latina women sharing their culture. The line is crossed when a woman dances on a pole like she's at a strip club and dances in a very sexual way. The kinds of acts that are shown on the Super Bowl need to be family friendly. This needs to change. I have not seen a truly family friendly act on the Super Bowl in over a decade. It's wrong to expose families to this kind of "act" that makes women out to be sex objects. As a woman I find this very offensive.

Jennifer Lopez and Shakira's performance during the Super Bowl halftime show was borderline porn. I was watching the game with my 11 and 8 year old sons who covered their own eyes during most of the performance. I'm not a bible beater religious person but you'd think some basic decency would exist for a freaking football game that has the entire country watching. I was very disappointed with the JLo and Shakira halftime performance. It was completely inappropriate since many children were watching it. The "outfits" barely covered their lady parts, and I had to cover my husband's eyes for most of it. This hurts the empowerment of women! A woman, wearing a bra and thong, gyrating on a stripper pole, while an orgy ensues on the stage, is not a musical performance, it's pornography on Network TV!!! The biggest football game of the year is American history, a family affair, not an outlet to expose America's children to activity and behavior that belongs behind the closed doors of a strip club or a couple's bedroom. This complaint is also in reference to Janet Jackson, Rhianna, Adam Levine and others who use sexual influence on Network television to beg for our attention. FCC, please stand up for your viewers! The superbowl halftime show was inappropriate for a general audience of ANY AGE. Sexually explicit material, that encourages women to be seen as nothing more than mere sex objects, and encourages men to treat them that way. This was offensive to women, men, and children. My husband didnt even care to watch because he felt he would be committing adultery on me by watching soft core porn. Dancing with the pole and crotch and butt revealing thongs was extremely vulgar, offensive. As a woman i am very offended that the fcc is allowing this kind of thing on television...the fcc has a job to do

It is to make tv a safe place where children and parents can enjoy tv. This violated nudity laws in my opinion not to mention basic moral decency. ry on me by JLo's movie Hustlers was rated R so since when is rated R viewing allowed on network TV at 7/8:00pm? On the one day of the year that child sex trafficking is at its worst, you allow the glorifying of orgies, sexual exploits of women and pole dancing to be front and center. There are a multitude of studies that prove that the type of content featured during the Superbowl Halftime Show is harmful to children. Even though everything about the marketing, promotion, production, and air time of the Superbowl communicated that it was intended for all audiences, it was not and we had to turn off our television. The fact that the content of a prime time program directly harms 25% of the U.S. population is unacceptable. Children are not second-class citizens and have the right to be secure in their own homes, free from harmful intrusion. Children are powerless to enforce these rights and rely on the adults (FCC) in their lives to ensure their safety and well-being.

Description

Please watch the performance by Jennifer Lopez and Shakira at this year's Superbowl Halftime performance. Scantly clad Jennifer shows her butt to the world with barely a thin piece of cloth covering. There were simulated sex acts, gyrating, grinding, and WAY too much camera time spent on their crotches. AND, they had children participate in this! It is a known fact that the Superbowl is a family themed event and material like this should not be shown during that time. Isn't that a law??

The performance for the Super Bowl half time show was completely inappropriate, for everyone. It was tasteless and horrible. Our young son came in as Shakira was grabbing her vagina and dancing like a stripper. How in earth is this what we want our children and everyone watching?? Only thing I can think is that so many people watch porn online and compared to that, these sluty dancers are nothing. It was awful and offensive.

Can we as parents have the halftime show rated in the future so that we can be sure before a pole dancer is on our screens that we can remove our children from the room? There is human trafficking at an alarming rate taking place outside that event so I do not see this as an empowering thing. My daughter doesn't need to see a girl on a pole to be empowered & my son doesn't need to see a girl on a pole period. Just please either keep it PG or announce the rating change before so we can make changes accordingly. Thank you.

I am so disappointed and disgusted by the NFL and Fox TV allowing a pornographic half time performance by Jennifer Lopez. This was horrible for families and disgusting for anyone to have to watch. The NFL should not allow Jay-Z's company to provide the entertainment because this is the type of degrading to women kind of show you will get! Look at the vulgar language his own songs have. This is truly disappointing and disgusting. The FCC needs to penalize both of these organizations and prevent this kind of thing from happening again!

I was deeply disappointed in the half time show on Sunday. I feel where the performers are talented singers, shaking their private parts on camera where children and families are viewing was offensive. There have been some great performers that don't have to go to these lengths to get viewership. In a day when most women want empowerment this performance, in my opinion, cheapened this movement by showing that women strutting their "stuff" is entertainment. Please consider limiting this kind of performance to viewers during prime time programming

The FCC has rules about decency on network television between certain hours when children are watching. It is well established that children are watching during the Super Bowl.

If seeing Jennifer Lopez in a sheer costume that outlined every curve and just barely covered her lady parts isn't considered "indecent," then porn would be allowed on television.

I want to voice my concern over the sexual content of the Super Bowl Half Time show during prime time, while millions of children and youth were watching. Including rope and stripper pole, scantily dressed performers, crotch grabbing, camera shots of J Lo's barely covered vagina are not acceptable for minors and quite frankly, offensive to me as a woman. There were no minors watching with us, but this display on a network did not allow parents to choose what their children could view prior to the presentation. To the best of my knowledge, there was no rating to the performance to allow parents to monitor what their children were exposed to. This was inappropriate and irresponsible, in my opinion. We can do better than this for our youngest, most vulnerable generation.

There is nothing wrong with my TV but your website makes it impossible to file an indecency complaint. So, I will force the complaint through this portal and ask you forward to the correct office. I was highly offended and disgusted by the Fox Network February 2, 2020 Super Bowl Half time broadcast. It was inappropriate for general audiences. The half-time performance was middle age women lip synching to 1990 high energy music while conducting pole dancing, hip gyrations but worst, was the tongue fluttering indicative of a sexual performance as well as JLo wearing only a strap covering her vagina. At one one, JLo did splits in to the camera with only this narrow strap blocking the viewing audience from her vagina. The show was obscene, disgusting, and inappropriate for all audiences. This performance should have been shown perhaps in Vegas or on an online porn site but not broadcast on a Sunday between 9AM-10PM to a national TV audience. Fox, the NFL and the performers should be fined and band from further performances.

I'm sure I don't need to tell you. It was NOT appropriate for family friendly tv. Kids are watching. We WILL NEVER watch the super bowl as a family again after this years half time. If you can't respect my family, I won't support your game.

The over sexualized nature of the “dancing” during the 2020 Superbowl half time show was highly offensive and demeaning as well as EXTREMELY inappropriate for children during normal television viewing hours. Please review and fine those responsible for this including Jennifer Lopez.

This is totally unacceptable!!!! Jaylo basically nude on the stage. Dancing on a stripper pole and any apparent orgy depicted below her. Wow the NFL keeps digging a deeper and deeper hole. The camera focused on her barely covered crotch the whole show. Completely unacceptable for tv. What a poor role model for young girls. Shame on Pepsi, NFL, and Fox for allowing this vulgar scene on public tv!!!!!!

Description

I walked into a room of children's eyes glued to a tv to watch the sexualization of women. Every few seconds, the camera zoomed in a a woman's crotch, barely covered by clothing. J. Lo's ass crack with a black leather strip covering her hole. What a shame that the NFL and ratings succumb to the overt sexualization in the name of "entertainment". Who is your audience and who are you trying to protect? You can solve this problem by explicitly stating upfront that all entertainment is for ALL family who gather together to watch the Super Bowl. That the entertainers are expected and required to cover their "swimsuit areas" and that cameramen avoid getting their hardons by not zooming in on a woman's genetalia.

The halftime show this year was highly inappropriate. Crotch shots, a woman writhing on a pole...you expect these things in a strip club not on the field of a major football game watched by families with children in the room. The performers should be ashamed, the NFL should be ashamed, and the FCC should take action.

The half time show was super raunchy and inappropriate for the majority of the viewing audience during prime time. I can't believe that the fcc allowed this during the super bowl and around 7pm when tons of people including children who did not want to, or should not, see that. It was like a tacky stripper act! It was ridiculous when Jennifer Lopez slid her crotch into the camera and wiggled her finger onto her vagina! My kids and grand kids were watching!! empowering to anything or anyone, my ass. You guys should be charged with a crime and sued. My family won't be watching next year. Shame on you!

Should have more strict guidelines. It was like watching a PORn show and was not appropriate for family. We were showing this at a church youth function and was totally embarrassed for doing so. It could have been just as good without the pole and with more clothing on and not so much "gyrating". We love her we love Dan I g and cut clothes but that was too far!

The 2020 Super Bowl halftime show was denigrating to women and totally inappropriate for a traditional family entertainment program. FOX allowed women to be used in vulgar, disgusting ways. I don't care what adults do in private, but such public sexual displays harm all women. FOX & the NFL have a responsibility to society and have failed miserably. Please punish them to curtail future abuse of women at these great sporting events.

I get that there are those that would think 2 women shaking their goods on stage and pole dancing is entertainment, but maybe in a strip club, not on TV and NOT at halftime at the Super Bowl. I love football, wait for the SB, wait for their commercials, but halftime has gotten so raunchy and sexual that I can't stand to watch it. We don't let the kids watch, for sure. How do we get our point across that this kind of thing can't be on our TV's where kids can see mostly naked women bending over and shaking their asses. It's wrong on so many levels!!

I put 7 pm below...don't remember what time halftime aired here.

Close up images of women's crotches. This is beyond me why anyone would think this is appropriate for adults, let alone all the children at that venue and watching. My family and I changed the channel, but not fast enough. It is ok for a society to have standards of decency. There was nothing empowering about a strip tease. The entire show was degrading (I watched only a few minutes but I understand it didn't improve).
