My family hosted a Super Bowl party with many CHILDREN present - all to watch the Super Bowl, entertaining commercials, and half-time show.

To my and my friends' dismay, the half-time show crossed the boundaries of what we allow our children to view. We were forced to send them out of the room. Then, we turned it off.

After discussion, we decided to continue our "Super Bowl" parties in the future, but we will no longer watch the Super Bowl. Sadly, we can no longer trust the game and half-time show to be suitable viewing for our children. Instead, we'll host a movie night with a verified child-friendly rating.

I'm OUTRAGED that the FCC isn't addressing this DELIBERATE and PLANNED indecent show that promotes an industry greatly associated with sex slavery.

As I sat watching the half-time show of the Superbowl I was embarrassed for my 12 and 9 year-old children, who literally turned from the tv and covered their eyes during portions of the show, said "why are they taking their clothes off" and "what is that pole for".

I am a fan of J. Lo and Shakira, but the display that they and the male performers put out for the world to see enticed men and women to see women as sex objects. This performance is an opportunity to raise our eyes and inspire our hearts and minds and instead it degraded the beauty of women and inspired lust in the hearts of men. Please provide inspiring, beautiful half-time performances. Our hearts need this!

Super Bowl halftime show with Jennifer Lopez and company pole dancing & dancing in ways to suggest sex acts as well as the wardrobe, or lack thereof, was obscene to the point of being porn at times. These things all boiled down were definitely not family friendly viewing. And, by the way for the record, not empowering to women as some would suggest. It's fine for JoLo to play act at being a stripper (in the privacy of her own bedroom) but the life of a real stripper the majority of the time is not empowering in any way. But this show could not be considered entertain, it was more like porn.

Description

This was a totally inappropriate Super Bowl halftime show! The stripper pole, two-sided thong and vagina touching gestures was too sexually charged for television during family hours. This should have been marketed as adult entertainment, and the television industry has an obligation to warn viewers with children when something is (R) rated and not for all audiences. Yes, Lopez is experienced at pole dancing, having played a strip-club dancer in the 2019 film, "Hustlers," which had an R rating, and even if given the heads up, few adults would choose to see it with their children or grandmothers. Some serious amends need to be made to the public, and fines like any other unmarked inappropriate show would receive!

Description

I take no issue with sensual Latin dancing. Shakira's performance was generally straight dancing, but for a few unnecessary floor writhing and twerking moves. The African, Latin dancing steps were great!

I am appalled that my 19 year old, and 15 year old boys and 17 year old and 11 year old daughters were subjected to JLo's channelling her inner stripper. Sticking her barely covered crotch in my children's faces was offensive. Why arouse my teenage sons and message to my daughters that this is the new face of female empowerment? Half-naked, grabbing your crotch, sticking your butt in our faces... I did not think watching the Super Bowl would involve inviting a strip joint into our living room. I would expect a greater sense of responsibility from the broadcasters. In a world where women are demanding that they not be objectified, I don't want to subject my children to a woman glorifying her self-objectification.

As a VERY concerned grandparent of 5 teen aged granddaughters, I wish to voice my complaints re: the very sexually explicit halftime show on a family event, i e, Superbowl. The production was highly inappropriate for family viewing. Sports events by tradition have always been family fare.

This production was a new low in the yearly decline of halftime productions. On a scale of 1-10, I'll give it a "10" for glitziness and debauchery. I think "1" is too high a score for the show as a whole. I don't necessarily believe in media censure, but this production bordered on pornographic and was not appropriate at all for families.

Horrific sexual display. Many young children/teens watching that and now accept it as normal. You g girls will as they always have, emulate such behavior and many a male will be hyper sexualized by it. This has to stop. Massive crotch shots and rear end shots. Many will defend as freedom of expression which is equally sad. And we wonder why early teenage pregnancy happens and we wonder why young men expect the young female to be a willing sexual creature who wants sex. This isn't just Super Bowl but I complain because it is a more full family rich environment. I wish all shows with overtly sexually graphic material were removed. AND PORN SHUT DOWN. THIS FROM A PORN ADDICT FOR 35 YEARS. Now as a sex addiction counselor I see the ravages of this as well as the highly sexualized pop culture.

The super bowl receives different standards from other shows. This year's halftime performance was vulgar. If they're going to be allowed to broadcast indecent material, there at least needs to be a rating system like with movies so parents can protect their children who are obviously watching and the Super Bowl will have to own up to what they are presenting. Super Bowl is promoted in schools to children. Crotch shots are not appropriate for general audiences no matter what anyone says. How do they get away with this every year?

The game itself started out fairly straightforward and somewhat interesting ... two football teams playing football - great!, what I tuned in to see. Then the half time show started: this is when the overt, blatant, UNWANTED!! sexual harassment began. 1) I did NOT want to see the sexual hip and butt gyrations and tongue flicking directly into cameras, from numerous different angles, by Shakira. 2) I did NOT want to see Lopez gyrate up A STRIPPER POLE, swing around it, show he barely covered vagina her legs spread WIDE OPEN. 3) I did NOT want to see Lopez SLIDING ON THE FLOOR DIRECTLY INTO A CAMERA WHILE RUBBING HER CROTCH!

I was not made aware that pornography would be shown at half time, there were no warning notices posted that the content is not suitable for children, nor did Shakira or Lopez warn the viewing audience verbally that they would be performing sexually explicit acts!

Please take IMMEDIATE ACTION with the NFL, Pepsi Co., and the sexually explicit performers.

Company Complaining About: Dish Network

Description

I was extremely disappointed in the poor taste that was shown in the halftime entertainment at the February 2, 2020 Super Bowl.

The Super Bowl is a must watch event that draws a very broad audience including families with young children and teenagers. I thought that Jenifer Lopez's outfit and dance moves were offensive and definitely not appropriate for family viewing during daytime hours.

I realize that personal tastes in what is appropriate vary a great deal. I have also read that many people thought the halftime show was great. But I did not.

I realize I didn't have to watch. I could have left the room and come back when the 3rd quarter started. But I and other viewers should not have to do that.

There are many excellent performers who could but on an entertainment program without the near pornographic elements of this year's program.

I hope in future years there is an effort to have more wholesome entertainment.

Thanks for creating an avenue to give feedback.

Description

Hello, I'd like to file a complaint that the Superbowl halftime show was not appropriate for young viewers and the channels showing the game should have issued a parental guidance warning. I do not think stripper costumes and sexual dances are appropriate for general audiences. Their simulated sex scenes do not belong on family tv hours. The crotch shots which allowed the audience to literally see Shakira's butt from the front was obscene.

Jennifer Lopez showing crotch (be it tin foil covered or not) while on a stripper pole was obscene. These women are objectifying themselves and communicating that our culture and society condone this type of exploitation of women.

If they wish to do this, it should be done in the proper venue and not on evening television. I believe the channels showing this softcore porn without a family warning should be reprimanded and not allowed to do this again. American consumers should be able to trust that the public airwaves during family hours are friendly to everyone.

As a woman with 3 daughters, I was outraged by the half-time show. It was not at all family friendly, which I believed was the NFL's goal. Nor did it comply with the FCC rules and regulations. I'm a huge football fan and am quite disappointed. What was shown Sunday WAS NOT empowering to women. It was degrading. Women need to know they can be empowered outside of sex. That's not the only way to gain power and influence and respect. The message sent was erroneous and beyond inappropriate.

My family and I were watching the Super Bowl on Sunday night and found the Half Time Show to be indecent and not fit for National Television. Jennifer Lopez's assless chaps and strip of fabric at her crotch were not something I felt comfortable watching with my family and extended family ranging in age from 19 - 89. Her grabbing at her crotch and pole dancing were inappropriate and embarrassing. Keeping in mind that she was pole dancing in the movie Hustler which was rated R, I'm not sure why the powers that be would find this acceptable to broadcast on what has become one of the biggest days of the year for family and friends of ALL AGES to gather and watch the game and halftime show together. Also, Jay-Z , Beyonce and their child not standing for the National Anthem and being shown not doing so sends a terrible message to those who have fought to keep that flag flying and allowing talentless people like themselves to be free and do whatever it is that they do. I hope that next year the NFL (who I am also voicing my complaint with) and the FCC will use better judgment and not pander to those having the least morals in our society.

Thank you for the opportunity to voice my complaint.

Our family and friends (this includes kids from 4 up to adult) look forward to watching the super bowl together every year. We love the game, the commercials, and the half time show. Can someone please explain to me why these half time shows have turned to garbage? I understand and appreciate that Jlo and Shakira are extremely talented singers and performers, but I'm not sure who thought crotch shots and pole dancing (yes I know it requires athleticism) in a suggestive manner was approved for my children or my viewing. How on earth did this make the cut? I wouldn't want to be in the same room as my parents watching this!

There have been other shows where I've been less than impressed with the themes or wardrobe choices, but this is definitely a new low, Justin Timberlake and Janet Jackson taking a far 2nd. I know these entertainers are capable of putting on a good show that is family friendly, why is the FCC allowing this trash which goes against its own standards?

We will not be watching future halftime shows, unless this is resolved. And it's quite possible you couldn't care less, since your target demographic must be a bunch of horny men who'd prefer a day at the strip club. Thanks for giving them what they want and ruining it for the rest of us.

The halftime show, DURING PRIME TIME TELEVISION, was highly inappropriate for children. I was under the impression that Prime Time Television is for multi-generational viewing. This exhibition from the NFL and Pepsi showed young girls that sexual exploitation of women is OK. At this rate, the halftime show and other Prime Time TV programs will be allowed to show nudity in the near future. I hope the role of the FCC continues to be one in which it holds stations accountable and requires their programs to be suitable for viewers of all ages.

The half time show for Super Bowl 54 was totally inappropriate. I hoped this was something families could watch together but that was not the case. It was an exploitation of women for all the world to see. The costumes, the acts, the moves - all were disgusting and not worthy of family TV. We need TV shows that are uplifting so families can enjoy together and not have to worry about all the immoral images we saw during the halftime show. We talk about kids and the problems they are having these days and then we put stuff like this on TV??? We need shows that portray decent values and give kids good self-esteem and not make them think it is about showing off their body. There is enough objectifying of women in this world; we don't need to add to it.

I was greatly offended, along with many other decent Americans, by the 'strip show' at halftime of the Super Bowl. If you have to be 18 years old to enter into a cabaret/strip club, then there is no excuse or reason for the show my children were exposed to during a prime time family event. This is disgusting and disgraceful to millions of Americans that want to raise their children to respect women and not view them as objects for sexual glorification. I can't believe that this actually happened on American prime time television.

I have a 26 year old daughter and 19 year old daughter and they were both disgusted by the display of crotch and the pole dancing. My family is by no means pruders but even my husband fast forward the show. What happen to the days of tasteful shows and entertainment of talent not entertainment of body. I want strong independent daughters and teaching them to get by on talent not on sex. Apparently that message is old school. I believe the station should be liable for the show and the crotch shots during prime time TV.

I thought that television programming that is unsuitable for children and teens would be labeled with descriptions like, TV-MA14, or the like. We watch football together as a family, and the extreme sensuality on display during this year's halftime show was ridiculous. How about you (the FCC) do something useful for a change and put an end to this? Yes, we have the choice of turning off the TV during future halftime shows... but only if we are warned in advance. I guess it accomplished one useful thing. I will never again purchase a Pepsi product, and will never again watch any program with J-Lo. Since the FCC apparently has no ability to protect young viewers from inappropriate content (albeit during family viewing hours) all I suppose I can do is to not support the entities that are behind it.

However, when the half-time show aired, we had to change the channel as the obscene and sexually-explicit clothing and movements of Shakira and Jennifer Lopez were far from appropriate for our children. Their performance did the opposite of what they say their message is, to empower girls and women. Instead, they continued the exploitation and sexualization of women. Description

The Lopez and Shakira simulated strip teases were pornographic. The young, young girls displayed in cages gave an unacceptable message of bondage and pedophilia. The halftime show was unacceptable. I am asking you to review the matter. I am asking for changes to be made so that the Superbowl halftime shows, which have become more and more pornographically centered over the last decade or so, will cease. The message being sent to the audience, especially the youth, of 'pornography as socially acceptable for all ages and audiences at any time of day,' is just not acceptable.

I ask that you tighten your laws and/or enforce what laws are already on the books regarding this matter. I mean, young, young girls in cages?! Strip teases?!

I also ask that you FINE, BIG TIME, both the NFL and whomever the producers were of the halftime show (J Z?). Please don't let this offense go unaddressed nor unpunished.

Thank you.

I am complaining about the halftime performances of the 54th Super Bowl on Feb 2, 2020. The performances by Shakira and Jennifer Lopez were both vulgar and demeaning to women. There were nudity, sexual gestures, explicit pole dancing, and an overall sense of vulgarity. There is no way I would let my children watch that show, even though we were watching the football game together. The content was in the R/MA rating in my opinion and has no place in tv content promoted as family entertainment. The depiction that women can only entertain us if they are naked and writhing, while the men walk around in full coverage is absolutely demeaning. I submit that this kind of content should not be allowed on tv during football games and other family-style programming.

Description

I was appalled by the Super Bowl halftime show featuring JLo & Shakira. It was obscene and I was embarrassed by the irony of so-called powerful women objectifying and sexualizing themselves in a national arena in front of millions of children. Not to mention performing this lewd behavior along side kids integrated in the performance.

I don't understand how a powerful network and the NFL would taint their reputation and support this kind trashy strip-club performance, and have the audacity to show it knowing that Super Bowl Sunday is a family event. Knowing children are watching. Without even the courtesy of a warning.

It's an insult that the network and the NFL assume this country's values are scummy enough to condone this kind of content. It seems like a lazy attempt to default to the predictable "sex sells" smut. How can they think that the majority of the country considers this acceptable family entertainment? It's not what we want.

The next-day news sensationalized the performance and glorifying it as giving the public what it wanted. Newswriters' opinions and semantics falsely represent the opinion of the masses. No one with a conscience or any values, which is most of us, appreciated it. We all felt disrespected and violated.

We need to remember Edmund Burke's statement, "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." I am raising my voice with other concerned citizens throughout the world in opposition to current trends. I am telling the sponsors of offensive media that we have had enough. We need to support programs and products that are positive and uplifting.

I was shocked on Sunday while watching the NFL Super Bowl halftime show. My complaints are as follows:

- 1) The Super Bowl is a FAMILY pastime. I didn't expect to see what I saw
- 2) Several times during the halftime show, the performers shed layers of clothing, and there were numerous camera shots of crotches and buttocks.
- 3) There was gyrating hips and shaking butts and even my adult children were shocked
- 4) The pole dancing - why would they show that?

We have decency laws the companies involved should be swiftly punished. I will never watch another half time show. My children had to leave the room before I shut it off completely. Disgusting. Thongs close up views so we could all see jlos silver maxi pad?! WHILE MILLIONS OF CHILDREN WATCHED & THERE WERE CHILDREN ON STAGE!! Absolutely disgusting the inaction of this agency is appalling. Some role model for children. Thanks for exposing this to toddlers before the TV could be shut off. Exactly what does this agency do if nothing is done to immediately censor this disgusting Porn & strip show. Thank you for allowing children to be exposed to this nastiness. Janet Jackson's "wardrobe malfunctioned & there was a quick action. Porn & strippers in thongs, crickets, nothing, not even blurring, wow just wow. It was gross & millions of children were exposed to it, not to mention the ones on stage?! There is rightful outrage & needs to be an example set to avoid this disgusting behavior. No one wanted to see that or get close ups of a thong so we were all blessed to see vagina & ass on national television. How exactly was thongs appropriate attire for national television in front of millions of children? A message should be sent to the executives who approved the show? Why was none of it blurred? Why was this allowed?

As Board Chair of a nonprofit assisting female victims of sex trafficking, I need to comment on the Super Bowl halftime show. The progress we have made against sex trafficking has been pushed back years by the way JLo climbed the stripper pole, rolled around and showed her vagina to the camera, etc. In real life, trafficked women report being sold 15-40 times a day. Why was this allowed to be glamorized? You are only creating an increased demand for prostitution, which in turns keeps women victims slaves to their traffickers. It's time to protect victims of sex trafficking.

Ticket: # 3804030 - Indecency - requesting that you impose fine

Date: 2/4/2020 6:46:56 PM

City/State/Zip: Fountain Hills, Arizona 85268

Description

I am contacting you to urge the FCC to impose the highest possible fine on Fox (and, if possible, on the NFL) for the raunchy soft-core porn Super Bowl halftime show that was broadcast into American homes with millions watching, including (as is well documented) many children.

People had to send their children out of the room when Jennifer Lopez took the stage in a costume that was basically a two-sided thong with chaps that left her entire bottom hanging out. It got worse from there, with the camera repeatedly zooming in on her barely covered crotch – which she kept grabbing throughout the show. At one point, she bent over in a sexually provocative position and exposed her entire backside; the only thing separating her anus from the camera was a thin black thong.

How “family friendly” was it to broadcast Ms. Lopez performing on a stripper pole, while barely dressed backup dancers graphically simulated an orgy on the floor beneath her? All over this country, parents had to try to figure out what to say when their very young children asked, “Mom, what is a stripper pole?”

Shakira was not as offensive, though the camera repeatedly zoomed in on her crotch – that can’t have been an accident.

The Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake “wardrobe malfunction” stunt resulted in CBS being fined $550,000. The Jackson/Timberlake moment pales in comparison to the unremittingly gross display that was broadcast into American homes for 15 minutes during the premier sporting event of the year.

The NFL and the networks have many, MANY options for talented entertainers who would happily put on a family-appropriate show that would be enjoyed and appreciated by millions. Why are they choosing to broadcast trash? The only way they’ll get the message that they need to make a change is with HEAVY, HEAVY fines – not a slap on the wrist, but something that will hit them hard in the pocketbook. I urge you to impose such fines.

We found the vulgar and indecent performances, during the Superbowl halftime show, to be totally unacceptable. Not only did our young kids have to see such immoral displays of simulated sex acts and pole dancing strip tease moves, but the women in our family were humiliated to see women portrayed as sex objects. Please investigate this incident and let the consumers know that our government is very concerned about what is allowed into American households. Its time that these adult rated performances were stopped. There is no reason to make our sporting events into an excuse to show pornography.

For a championship game that most assume is family-friendly that performance with HIGHLY inappropriate. It was advertised as an empowering women moment. How are crotch shots and bottomless chaps empowering? How are women supposed to convince men to judge them by what's in their brains when the women being the empowering women spokespersons are shaking their bottoms and pole dancing while wearing a sheer bodysuit? It would be disappointing if Super Bowl half-time shows required a viewer discretion warning. Someone should be fined, either the FOX Network or the NFL.

What is to be said about the degraded spectacle that the NFL served up for its halftime show Sunday? It was a crotch-grabbing, half-time strip show, objectifying women. Besides the fact that millions of children were watching this, It was quite offensive even to adults! This was NOT family-friendly entertainment, nor was it, in the least, appropriate for prime-time television. Frankly, it was R-rated and reflects how degraded our culture has become.

The solution: provide classy entertainment that all age levels can enjoy, not R-rated trash which makes it uncomfortable and embarrassing for children, parents, and grandparents to watch together as a family.

Date: 2/4/2020 11:29:01 PM

City/State/Zip: Bellaire, Texas 77401

Description

I'm very disappointed that a stripper performance was allowed on TV during a time when millions of children were watching. For the next halftime show, the performer will literally need to be naked in order to "one up" this year's show. How do I teach my sons to respect women when they see stuff like that? I should not have to sensor my own television during a football game for a rated R "musical performance". Please make sure this never happens again.

Description

I am saddened that we are allowing entertainment like what was allowed during the halftime show at the super bowl. What part of this was family friendly? Two women being extremely sexual, one to the point of dancing on a stripper pole and then children are brought on the stage. In the midst of the #metoo movement and yet we allow this to be aired? This is not right and it should not be allowed on this venue. It makes the breast reveal that happened years ago look like nothing and everyone was upset over that. Please take action and draw the line.

Description

I was appalled at the halftime show. The show was R rated if you ask me. Having my family watch was an embarrassment. I can't believe they can get away with this. Super Bowls should be for all ages. If it's not going to be, someone should give warning in advance.

Description

Whoever put on that NFL Superbowl halftime show should be fined for pornography on network television. The Superbowl is supposed to be family-friendly. That was far from it. Shame on them for subjecting little children to pole dancing and cameras zooming in on women's private parts. This is not entertaining for families with any type of moral compass.

Description

Jennifer Lopez's gyrating on a stripper pole with her butt and her crotch smack in front of my eyes,my husband and children was an affront to women and children and violates your rules. I will be boycotting Pepsi and their products and unless you can guarantee a decent half time show next year we will boycott the Super Bowl.

Ticket: # 3804736 - Superbowl Football Game Halftime Show

Date: 2/5/2020 1:59:10 AM

City/State/Zip: Broken Arrow, Oklahoma 74012

Description

According to the FCC, Federal law prohibits obscene, indecent and profane content from being broadcast on the radio or TV. That halftime show was all of the above, and not suitable to be aired during a time when young, impressionable viewers were likely to be watching. And it was degrading to all human persons. To deter and prevent future shows of this type, the network should be hit with very heavy penalties. Please enforce the laws on this.

Respectfully,

Dear FCC,

I would like to file an official complaint on the Super Bowl Half-time show. This half-time show aired during family viewing hours and was nothing but porn. Shakira and J-Lo were touching their crotches, gyrating their hips to simulate sex, Shakira used the rope simulating S & M while J-lo sexually slithered down a stripper pole. Then we saw the simulation of an orgy and an explicit camera view of J-lo's butt, just barely covering the anus. I believe the NFL and Fox should be fined for this clear violation of FCC rules.

Description

I have a HUGE problem with the way Shakira and Jennifer Lopez were allowed to dance on the American Superbowl Halftime show. With Lopez bending over in a leather thong, grabbing her vagina, pole dancing, etc. I was totally flabbergasted that this performance was allowed to air on network television during a time and event where it is well known that children are viewing. This is outrageous. I would like to see the people who were responsible for this herrendous display heavily fined and give a public apology.

Description

The Superbowl half time show was completely inappropriate for prime time programming. Pole dancing, explicit crotch shots, young girls in cages, highly sexual gyrating all communicated highly sexual themes and objectification of women. To resolve this problem, there must be more regulation of prime time programming rated G standards for future Superbowl programs.

Description

Superbowl 2020 halftime show was inappropriate. So much talent and age defying endurance was overshadowed by normalizing stripper poles and hypersexuality. How dare they lure children into the horrible world of sexual exploitation and objectification of girls and women. I am mad! I am sad! I am a third grade teacher of little children who are being fed the lie that this is okay and it's not. In fact it is devastating for their self esteem, self worth and soul. There are more important things than money. Take a stand.

JLo & Shakira's performance were highly sexual & JLo's wardrobe was inexcusable given the time of day this was aired and the audience that watched the performance. The dancing was amazing, but it was hard to even see that with all of the crotch-shots, crotch-grabs, and lack of clothes. This is not empowering women & I'm disappointed celebrities once again have no filter on what they can expose on TV.

Description

I am upset over the halftime show at the Super Bowl. Not only did Jennifer Lopez wear a costume that showed the majority of her buttocks, a small pad covering her anus, and little material exposing the outline of her labia. Her dance movements were sexual in nature as she turned her back to the audience, bent over, showing a full view of her buttocks and the little pad that covered her anus. She did this several times. The cameramen focused on her gyrations and repeatedly kept the camera on her frontal labia area and on her backside showing her buttocks and the little white pad that covered her anus. Her movements and costume were such they definitely were not suitable for young children. And her performance of gyrations and costume that left nothing to the imagination was also extremely titillating to young and teen boys. Fox should have overseen what Lopez's costume was going to look like on her and what her act consisted of. FOX TV, the NFL, and the performer and the cameramen are all responsible for this very inappropriate and offensive performance. They all need to be fined and admonished for putting on a performance and dress that was clearly inappropriate and sleazy. It certainly did not belong on a regular TV channel. It belonged on Pay Per View where viewers would know what the act consisted of and therefore would not have their children in the room seeing such an inappropriate show.

I had 7 grandchildren watching the superbowl with me. The half-time show dress code was very inappropriate for children. The scanty outfits and dances were lewd.

I had to explain to them that good performers do not need to dress that way. Please do something .
