ANNOUNCING THE HIGH BIDDERS IN THE AUCTION OF 30 REGIONAL NARROWBAND (PCS) LICENSES;
WINNING BIDS TOTAL $490,901,787

The Commission completed its auction of 30 Regional Narrowband personal communication service (PCS) licenses on November 8. The names of the high bidders and the licenses they won are listed below. The total gross revenue derived from the Regional Narrowband PCS auction was $490,901,787 (including the withdrawal penalty of $2,128,987 incurred by PageMart II, Inc.). The total net revenue obtained from the Regional Narrowband PCS auction was $394,835,784 (including the withdrawal penalty of $2,128,987 incurred by PageMart II, Inc.).

Winning bidders are reminded that they must submit a down payment sufficient to bring their total deposit with the Commission up to 20 percent of the sum of their winning bids on or before Wednesday, November 16, 1994. Winning bidders who qualify as small businesses will only be required to submit a down payment sufficient to bring their total deposit with the Commission up to 10 percent of the sum of their winning bids by this date.

This payment must be made to Mellon Bank in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on or before Wednesday, November 16, 1994. Bidders who have incurred bid withdrawal penalties will also be required to submit the full amount of the bid withdrawal penalty or 20 percent of the amount of the withdrawn high bid, whichever is less, on or before Wednesday, November 16, 1994. All payments must be accompanied by an FCC Form 159 identifying who is paying, the amount of payment and the licenses and/or penalties for which payment is being made. The FCC Form 159 is necessary to allow the Mellon Bank to accurately process a bidder's remittance. Failure to accurately complete the FCC Form 159 could result in a delay in processing the remittance. Before completing FCC Form 159, remitters should read the "Instructions For Using FCC Form 159" contained in the Bidder's Information Package.
