

Exhibits for the Auction
No. 59 Short-Form Application and Related Issues

Disclaimer

These slides are provided by Bureau staff for informational purposes only. Nothing herein is intended to supersede any provision of the Commission's rules or public notices. These slides should not be used as a substitute for a prospective applicant's review of the Commission's relevant orders, rules, and public notices. Prospective applicants must familiarize themselves thoroughly and remain current with the Commission's rules relating to the Multiple Address Systems Spectrum service, rules relating to application and auction procedures, and the procedures, terms and conditions contained in the Auction No. 59 public notices.

Introduction

- Review of Exhibits for the short-form application (FCC Form 175).
- How the Rules and Exhibits work together.
- Provide additional helpful insights.

Notes Regarding Exhibits

- Rules listing the required information for exhibits are contained in Sections 1.2105 and 1.2112 of the Commission's Rules, and Section 1.2110.
- Rules governing Multiple Address Systems Spectrum are contained in Part 101.
- General guidelines are contained in Attachment D to the "Multiple Address Systems Spectrum Auction Scheduled for April 26, 2005," Public Notice, DA 04-3985 (rel. December 21, 2004).

Notes Regarding Exhibits

- No particular format for exhibits.
- However, exhibits must be complete.
- Refer to Section 1.2105(b) concerning modification and dismissal of applications.
 - Only minor modifications permitted (Section 1.2105(b)).
- Refer often to the Procedures Public Notice.

Notes Regarding Exhibits

- All applicants must include Exhibits A and D.
- Some applicants must include additional exhibits
 - Exhibit B (bidding agreements)
 - Exhibit C (bidding credit eligibility).

Exhibit A - Applicant Identity and Ownership Information

- Under Section 1.2105(a)(2)(ii), each applicant is required to disclose all real parties in interest, including persons or entities directly or indirectly controlling or owning the applicant.
- List all parties having a 10 percent or greater interest in the applicant (name, address, and citizenship).
- List all FCC-regulated entities of which the applicant or its owners own 10 percent or more.
 - Include a description of each entity's principal business and its relationship to the applicant.

Exhibit A (continued)

- Corporation: corporate name and address; and the name, title & citizenship of a responsible officer or director (Section 1.2112(a)).
- General Partnership: name, address & citizenship of all partners and their interest (Section 1.2112(a)(3)).
- Limited Partnership: name, address & citizenship of all partners whose interest is 10 percent or more (Section 1.2112(a)(2)).

Exhibit A (continued)

- Limited Liability Company: name, address & citizenship of all members whose interest is ten percent or greater (Section 1.2112(a)(5)).
- If None of the Above: name, citizenship, title or other relation to the applicant; and address of a principal or other responsible person.

Exhibit A (continued)

- Other Requirements: Applicants seeking bidding credits must provide additional ownership information (Section 1.2112(b)).
 - Names, addresses, and citizenship of all officers, directors, and other controlling interests as defined by Section 1.2110.

Exhibit B - Agreements with Other Parties and Joint Bidding Arrangements

- Anti-Collusion Rule: Unless properly disclosed, communications concerning bids, bidding strategies, or settlement agreements (including post-auction market structures) generally are prohibited among applicants that bid for licenses in any of the same geographic areas (Section 1.2105(c)).
- Prohibition period begins at the short-form deadline and ends at the down payment deadline (Section 1.2105(a)(2)(ix)).
- To be in compliance, applicants must certify under penalty of perjury that they have not entered and will not enter into any explicit or implicit agreements, arrangements or understandings of any kind with any parties other than those they have identified regarding the amount of their bids, bidding strategies or particular licenses on which they will or will not bid.

Exhibit B - (continued)

- For the anti-collusion rule, “applicant” includes controlling interests, ownership interests, and officers and directors.
- Applicants must identify all parties with whom they have entered into agreements of any kind relating to the licenses being auctioned, including post-auction market structure (Section 1.2105(a)(2)(viii)).

Exhibit B - (continued)

- The rule prohibits an auction applicant from discussing a competing applicant's bids or bidding strategies even if the first applicant does not discuss its own bids or bidding strategies.
- The rule requires auction applicants that make or receive a prohibited communication of bids or bidding strategies to report the communication immediately to the Commission in writing.
- Attachment F of the Procedures Public Notice lists Commission and Bureau documents addressing application of the anti-collusion rule.
- Auctions Website has an anti-collusion page with links to many of the same documents. See <http://wireless.fcc.gov/auctions/anticollusion>

Exhibit C - Bidding Credit Eligibility

Small and very small businesses can obtain a bidding credit (a payment discount) on licenses won in Auction No. 59. To qualify, the applicant, together with its affiliates, its controlling interests, and the affiliates of its controlling interests, must have had average gross revenues for the preceding 3 years that meet the following limits:

- Small Businesses – attributed average gross revenues of not more than $15 million – receive a 25 percent bidding credit.
- Very Small Businesses – attributed average gross revenues of not more than $3 million – receive a 35 percent bidding credit.

Exhibit C (continued)

- The controlling interest standard determines which interests must be attributed to the applicant.
- In some cases, a rural telephone cooperative applicant may exclude the gross revenues of the affiliates of its officers and directors.

Exhibit D - Prior Defaulters

- A statement is required indicating whether the applicant has ever been in default on any FCC license or has ever been delinquent on any non-tax debt owed to any Federal agency.
- For the statement, “applicant” includes applicant’s affiliates, controlling interests, and affiliates of the controlling interests.
- Statement made under penalty of perjury.

Red Light Rule

- The Commission has implemented the use of its Red Light Display System (RDL) to indicate those entities that currently have outstanding debts owed to the Commission.
- Auction applicants must comply with section 1.2105 of the Commission's rules by certifying that they are not in default or delinquent on non-tax debt. Alternatively, an applicant may seek a rule waiver.
- A recent Public Notice, DA 04-3491, 19 FCC Rcd 21920 (2004) describes the relationship between the Red Light Display System and short-form applications. Applicants must comply with Section 1.2105's requirements or their applications will be rejected.

Additional Exhibits

- Exhibit E, “Information Requested on Designated Entities”
 - Applicants may choose to attach an exhibit regarding designated entity status.
- Exhibit F, “Miscellaneous Information”
 - Provide any additional information on this exhibit.
 - If waiver requests are filed, applicants should provide as much information as possible.

Some Last Key Points

- Remember that applications will be available to the public after release of the status public notice.
 - Therefore, do not list any taxpayer identification numbers (TINs) or social security numbers on the FCC Form 175.
- Carefully read all the FCC Form 175 certifications
 - Submission of the FCC Form 175 is a representation that its contents are true and correct.
 - You must certify that you are legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to participate in the auction.
 - Submission of a false certification may result in penalties.

Finally. . .

An electronic copy of any filings that are submitted to the Commission related to Auction No. 59, including filings made with the Commission's Office of the Secretary, should also be submitted by electronic mail to the following address:

auction59@fcc.gov