Common Questions

When is my data saved during the data entry process?

What is the difference between a warning and an error?

What is the specific rule governing agreements, arrangements, and the like?

Anti-Collusion Rule

- Anti-Collusion Rule: Unless an agreement is properly disclosed, communications concerning bids, bidding strategies, or settlement agreements (including post-auction market structures) are prohibited among applicants that bid for licenses in any of the same or overlapping geographic areas (Section 1.2105(c)).
- Information on applicants' license selections, upfront payment amounts, and bidding eligibility will not be made public at least until after the close of bidding. The Commission will inform applicants by letter of the other applicants that have applied for licenses in any of the same geographic areas.
- To be in compliance, applicants must certify under penalty of perjury that they have not entered and will not enter into any explicit or implicit agreements, arrangements or understandings of any kind with any parties other than those they have identified regarding the amount of their bids, bidding strategies or particular licenses on which they will or will not bid.

Anti-Collusion Rule

- Prohibition period starts with the short-form deadline – June 19, 2008, at 6:00 p.m. ET - and continues until the down payment deadline, which will be specified in a future public notice. (Section 1.2105(c)(1)).
- The rule prohibits an auction applicant from discussing a competing applicant's bids or bidding strategies even if the first applicant does not discuss its own bids or bidding strategies.
- Any applicant that submits a short-form application to participate in Auction 78 remains subject to the Commission's anti-collusion rule until the down payment deadline, regardless of whether an upfront payment is made, the applicant becomes a qualified bidder, or it places a bid.

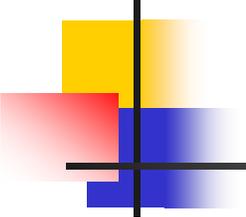

Anti-Collusion Rule

- The rule requires auction applicants that make or receive a prohibited communication of bids or bidding strategies to report the communication immediately to the Commission in writing. (Section 1.2105(c)(6)).
- Parties reporting prohibited communications must be careful that such reports do not themselves violate the anti-collusion rule. For example, a report of a prohibited communication could violate the rule by communicating prohibited information to other applicants through the use of FCC filing procedures that would allow public inspection of the report.
- A party seeking to report prohibited communications should consider submitting its report with a request that it be withheld from public inspection.
- Such parties are encouraged to consult with Auction staff if they have any questions about submitting a report. (Auction 78 Procedures Public Notice, paragraphs 38-41 (DA 08-1090)).

Anti-Collusion Rule

- Parties submitting application-related information should ensure that their submissions do not contain information that would violate the anti-collusion rule or the limited information procedures adopted for Auction 78. Parties seeking to submit any information that might reflect non-public information, e.g., license selection or upfront payment amount, should consider including a request that the information be withheld from public inspection until the end of the anti-collusion period.
- Parties are encouraged to consult with Auction staff if they have any questions about whether a filing might contain information that should be withheld from public inspection.

Agreements with Other Parties and Joint Bidding Arrangements

- Applicants must identify all parties with whom they have entered into agreements, arrangements, or understandings of any kind relating to the licenses being auctioned, including post-auction market structure. (Section 1.2105(a)(2)(viii)). Any applicant that submits an auction application to participate in Auction 78 regardless of whether an upfront payment is submitted or a bid is made, remains subject to the Commission's anti-collusion rule until the post-auction down payment deadline.
- For the anti-collusion rule, "applicant" includes controlling interests, ownership interests, and officers and directors. (Section 1.2105(c)(7)(i)).

Ownership Disclosure

- Rules listing the required information for short-form ownership disclosure are contained in Sections 1.2105 and 1.2112 of the Commission's rules, as well as Section 1.2110, where applicable.
- Attachment C of the Auction 78 Procedures Public Notice (DA 08-1090) provides detailed guidelines on meeting the ownership disclosure requirements.

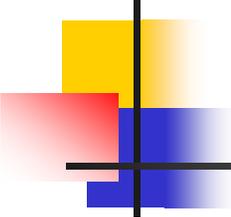

Applicant Identity and Ownership Information

- Under Section 1.2105(a)(2)(ii), each applicant is required to disclose all real parties in interest.
- Real party in interest is defined in Section 1.2112.
- Disclose all parties having a 10 percent or greater interest in the applicant. Section 1.2112(a).
- Disclose all FCC-regulated entities of which the applicant or its owners own 10 percent or more. Include a description of each entity's principal business and its relationship to the applicant. Section 1.2112(a)(7).

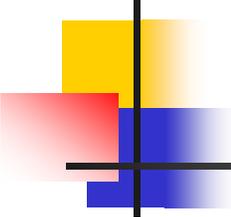

Form 175 Ownership Disclosures: DIHs, FRBs and Affiliates

- In the FCC Form 175 application, ownership information is divided into three groups:
 - Disclosable Interest Holders of the Applicant (DIHs)
 - FCC-Regulated Businesses of the Applicant (FRBs)
 - Affiliates of the Applicant

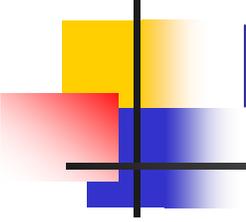

What is a DIH?

- A DIH is a “disclosable interest holder.” A DIH is a party that is required to be disclosed pursuant to Section 1.2112 of the FCC’s rules.
 - DIHs include:
 - (1) the real party or parties in interest in the applicant or application;
 - (2) parties holding 10% or more of stock;
 - (3) limited partners whose interest is 10% or greater;
 - (4) general partners;
 - (5) members of a limited liability company whose interest is 10% or greater; and
 - (6) parties holding indirect ownership interests in the applicant equaling 10% or greater.
- 47 C.F.R. Section 1.2112(a).

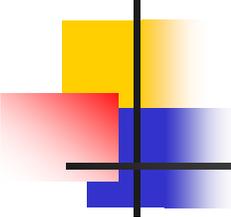

What is an FRB?

- An FRB is an FCC-regulated business entity.
- You must provide information on all FCC-regulated entities of which the applicant or its owners own 10 percent or more. You must also include information which describes each FRB's principal business and its relationship to the applicant. Section 1.2112(a)(7).

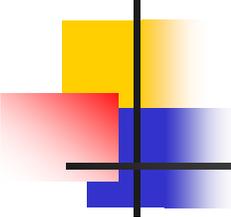

Bidding Credits and Entrepreneur Status

- Bidding credits and entrepreneur status are available to qualifying entities.
- The next few slides will cover the disclosures and information that must be submitted by applicants seeking to claim eligibility for bidding credits or entrepreneur status in Auction 78.

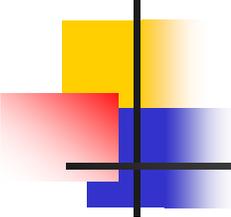

Bidding Credits: Who is Eligible?

- Bidding credits are available to “small” and “very small businesses.”
- Small Business - Attributed average gross revenues that exceed $15 million and do not exceed $40 million for the preceding three years, receives a 15 percent bidding credit.
- Very Small Business - Attributed average gross revenues that do not exceed $15 million for the preceding three years, receives a 25 percent bidding credit.

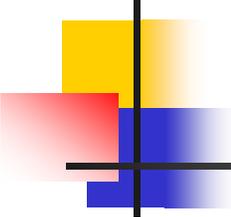

Closed Bidding for Entrepreneurs: Who is Eligible?

- 9 broadband PCS C Block licenses in Auction 78 are “closed,” only entrepreneurs may bid on them.
- To qualify for entrepreneur status, an applicant and its attributable interests must have:
 - combined total assets of less than $500 million; and
 - have had combined gross revenues of less than $125 million in each of the last two years.

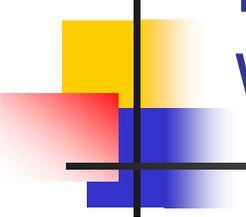

Bidding Credits and Entrepreneur Status: How to Establish Eligibility

- To determine eligibility, applicants must figure out their attributable gross revenues. Note that entrepreneurs must also determine their attributable total assets.
- For this purpose, gross revenues (and total assets) of related parties are attributed to the applicant. These parties include:
 - the applicant,
 - its affiliates,
 - its controlling interests,
 - affiliates of its controlling interests, and
 - entities with which it has an attributable material relationship.
- An applicant with an “impermissible material relationship” is ineligible for the award of designated entity benefits.
- For bidding credit eligibility, average gross revenues for the last 3 years are considered.
- For entrepreneur eligibility, gross revenues for the last 2 years are considered.

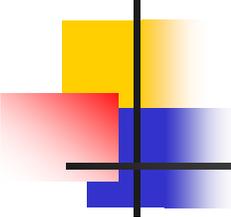

Bidding Credit and Entrepreneur Eligibility: Disclosure Requirements

- Affiliate, attribution, controlling interests, attributable material relationship, and impermissible material relationship are terms described in Section 1.2110.
- Applicants seeking to claim either bidding credits or entrepreneur status must provide information on ownership and agreements, as described in Sections 1.2112(a) and (b) of the FCC's rules.

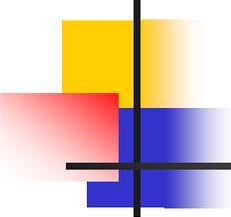

Bidding Credit and Entrepreneur Eligibility: What is an Affiliate?

- An affiliate, for purposes of Form 175, is any individual or entity that:
 - 1) directly or indirectly controls or has the power to control the applicant; or
 - 2) is directly or indirectly controlled by the applicant; or
 - 3) is directly or indirectly controlled by a third party that also controls or has the power to control the applicant.
- Control may be established through facts, including the existence of an identity of interest or common management with the applicant.
- Sections 1.2110(c)(5)(i) and (ii) of the FCC's rules provide further details concerning affiliates.

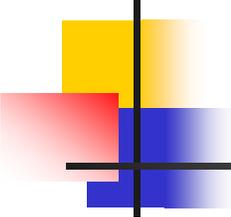

Bidding Credit and Entrepreneur Eligibility: Attributable Material Relationships

- An “attributable material relationship” occurs when an applicant has one or more agreements with any individual entity, including entities and individuals attributable to that entity, for the lease (under either spectrum manager or de facto transfer leasing arrangements) or resale (including under a wholesale arrangement) of, on a cumulative basis, more than 25% of the spectrum capacity of any individual license that is held by the applicant or licensee.
- Applicants seeking eligibility for designated entity benefits must disclose all parties with which the applicant has an attributable material relationship, and provide, separately and in the aggregate, the gross revenues of entities with which the applicant has an attributable material relationship. 47 C.F.R. Section 1.2110(b)(3)(iv)(B).

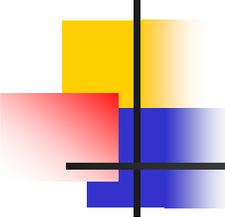

Bidding Credit and Entrepreneur Eligibility: Impermissible Material Relationships

- Impermissible material relationships occur when an applicant has agreements with one or more other entities for the lease (under either spectrum manager or de facto transfer leasing arrangements) or resale (including under a wholesale arrangement) of, on a cumulative basis, more than 50% of its spectrum capacity of any individual license.
- Such applicants are ineligible for the award of designated entity benefits.

Bidding Credits and Entrepreneur Status: Very Small/Small Business or Entrepreneur Consortium

- Small business or entrepreneur entities may form a consortium to participate in bidding. The gross revenues (and total assets) of the consortium members are not aggregated.
- Each consortium member must be a separate, distinct and independent legal entity.
- The consortium may file one short-form application. The consortium should obtain a separate FRN number.
- Note that, if the consortium is a winning bidder, the individual members of the consortium, or a new legal entity comprising two or more members of the consortium, will need to file separate long-form applications. 47 C.F.R. § 1.2107(g).

Foreign Ownership

- Section 310 of the Communications Act governs ownership of licenses by foreign interests or entities.
- Section 310(a) prohibits grant of an FCC license to any foreign government or one of its representatives.
- Section 310(b) restricts ownership of licenses by:
 - (1) Any alien or the representative of any alien;
 - (2) Any corporation organized under the laws of any foreign government;
 - (3) Any corporation of which more than one-fifth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by aliens or their representatives or by a foreign government or representative thereof or by any corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country; and
 - (4) Any corporation directly or indirectly controlled by any other corporation of which more than one-fourth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by aliens, their representatives, or by a foreign government or representative thereof, or by any corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country, if the Commission finds that the public interest will be served by the refusal or revocation of such licenses.
- All applicants must certify on their short-form applications that they are in compliance with Section 310's foreign ownership provisions. See Sections 1.2105(a)(2)(v) and (vi) of the FCC's rules.
- Potential applicants are encouraged to contact FCC staff before filing their short-form applications if they have any questions about complying with these requirements.

Defaults – Delinquencies

Red Lights

- Applicants must certify that, as of the short-form filing deadline, they are not in default on any Commission license and not delinquent on any non-tax debt owed to any Federal agency in order to be eligible to participate in the auction. Applicants must also state whether or not they have ever been in default on any Commission license or any non-tax debt owed to any Federal agency. For these purposes, “applicant” includes the applicant’s controlling interests and affiliates (of both the applicant and controlling interests).
- Under the Commission’s “red light” rule, it will not process applications and other requests for benefits filed by parties with outstanding debts owed to the Commission. Applicants are well advised to resolve any concerns regarding outstanding “red lights” for any relevant party prior to filing the Form 175. An applicant will be able to submit Form 175 to the Commission, notwithstanding a “red light” but the application may not be “accepted” at a later stage.
- Finally, applicants should remember that the “red light” database concerns only current delinquencies with the Commission. Auction rules are concerned with both current and former delinquencies on non-tax debt owed to any Federal agency. See 47 C.F.R. Section 1.2105(a)(2)(x) and (xi). Applicants should not rely on a “green light” as a guarantee that they have no concerns regarding delinquencies, current or former, on non-tax debt owed to any Federal agency.

Auction Application Manager Upfront Payment Calculator

Calculating Your Upfront Payment

Applicants are solely responsible for determining the amount of their upfront payment. In most FCC auctions, the amount of the upfront payment determines initial bidding eligibility. In calculating an upfront payment amount, an applicant should determine the maximum number of bidding units on which it may wish to be active (bid on or hold provisionally winning bids on) in any given round, and submit an upfront payment amount covering that number of bidding units. The upfront payment calculator may assist applicants in determining an amount. However, regardless of whether they use the upfront payment calculator, applicants should check their calculations carefully, as there is no provision for increasing a bidder's eligibility after the upfront payment deadline.

The following table lists all available licenses based on selections in your submitted FCC Form 175. The upfront payment calculator will help you to determine the appropriate upfront payment amount to submit with your Form 159. Use of the upfront payment calculator is always optional; you can type another amount in the Total Upfront Payment field or Total Bidding Units field, if desired. Please refer to the Auction No. 101 Procedures public notice for a complete explanation of upfront payments and bidding eligibility.

Eligibility is not license specific. You do not have to make an upfront payment to cover all licenses for which you have applied on FCC Form 175, but rather to cover the maximum number of bidding units that are associated with licenses on which you wish to place bids and hold provisionally winning bids in any single round. In order to calculate a total upfront payment, an applicant should add together the bidding units for all licenses on which it seeks to be active in any given round, and submit an upfront payment amount covering that number of bidding units. Please refer to the Auction No. 101 Procedures public notice for further explanation.

To use the Upfront Payment Calculator, do the following:

1. Select all licenses on which you seek to be active in any given round. The calculator will automatically calculate the total bidding units (maximum eligibility) and upfront payment amount for those licenses.
2. To save the total upfront payment amount and carry it through to Form 159, click the "Carry to 159" button.

Please note that if you selected 1,000 or more licenses, the calculator will not display the list or keep a running total of bidding units. If you have selected 1,000 or more licenses, simply type in the total number of bidding units for which you want to establish your maximum eligibility. The calculator will then automatically calculate the corresponding upfront payment amount.

Auction Application Manager Upfront Payment Calculator

Calculating Your Upfront Payment

Applicants are solely responsible for determining the amount of their upfront payment. In most FCC auctions, the amount of the upfront payment determines initial bidding eligibility. In calculating an upfront payment amount, an applicant should determine the maximum number of bidding units on which it may wish to be active (bid on or hold provisionally winning bids on) in any given round, and submit an upfront payment amount covering that number of bidding units. The upfront payment calculator may assist applicants in determining an amount. However, regardless of whether they use the upfront payment calculator, applicants should check their calculations carefully, as there is no provision for increasing a bidder's eligibility after the upfront payment deadline.

The following table lists all available licenses based on selections in your submitted FCC Form 175. The upfront payment calculator will help you to determine the appropriate upfront payment amount to submit with your Form 159. Use of the upfront payment calculator is always optional; you can type another amount in the Total Upfront Payment field or Total Bidding Units field, if desired. Please refer to the Auction No. 101 Procedures public notice for a complete explanation of upfront payments and bidding eligibility.

Eligibility is not license specific. You do not have to make an upfront payment to cover all licenses for which you have applied on FCC Form 175, but rather to cover the maximum number of bidding units that are associated with licenses on which you wish to place bids and hold provisionally winning bids in any single round. In order to calculate a total upfront payment, an applicant should add together the bidding units for all licenses on which it seeks to be active in any given round, and submit an upfront payment amount covering that number of bidding units. Please refer to the Auction No. 101 Procedures public notice for further explanation.

To use the Upfront Payment Calculator, do the following:

1. Select all licenses on which you seek to be active in any given round. The calculator will automatically calculate the total bidding units (maximum eligibility) and upfront payment amount for those licenses.
2. To save the total upfront payment amount and carry it through to Form 159, click the "Carry to 159" button.

Please note that if you selected 1,000 or more licenses, the calculator will not display the list or keep a running total of bidding units. If you have selected 1,000 or more licenses, simply type in the total number of bidding units for which you want to establish your maximum eligibility. The calculator will then automatically calculate the corresponding upfront payment amount.
