Hossein Hashemzadeh
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Hossein:

In an earlier conversation I had advised you that a few applications appearing on the Commission's February 28, 2005 Public Notice (Low Power Television Auction No. 81 Scheduled for September 14, 2005) as part of mutually exclusive applicant groups on Attachment A to the Public Notice had previously been amended to remove any mutual exclusivity.

Those applications which are listed as being part of mutual exclusive groups but which are not mutually exclusive are as follows:

Barstow, California; Channel 20; Laurie Mintz; Facility ID No. 125290;
File No. BNPTTL-20000807AEP; MX Group 018; amended January 21,
2002 (copy of amendment enclosed)

Durango, California; Channel 38; Julie Mintz; Facility ID No. 125273;
File No. BNPTTL-20000807AEI; MX Group 139; amended February 16,
2004 (copy of amendment enclosed)

Rock Springs, Wyoming; Channel 24; Julie Mintz; Facility ID No.
125075; File No. BNPTTL-20000807AAL; MX Group 024; Settlement Agreement filed January 22, 2002 (copy of settlement agreement enclosed)

Manhattan, Kansas; Channel 32; Amanda Orrick; Facility ID No. 125161;
File No. BNPTTL-20000807ABR; MX Group 200; amended January 2,
2002 (copy of amendment enclosed)

It should be noted that the Manhattan, Kansas, Barstow, California and Durango, Colorado amendments all appear on the Commission's CDBS database.

Would you please take whatever action is required in order to correct the Public Notice to delist these applications from their mutually exclusive groups. There are additional applications which have been amended which should not be considered mutually exclusive but which do not appear on the February 28, 2005 Public Notice. A separate list of those applications will be supplied to the Commission at a later time so as not to confuse those applications with the above-described applications appearing on the Commission February 28, 2005 Public Notice.

Please contact me should you have any questions regarding this request. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Lee J. Peltzman
